Studies in, drugs out at ACHS

BY GLORIA DAVIS

Lakeland Newspapers
The board of education and the administration of Antioch Community

High School is looking for possible changes in its drug and alcohol abuse policies and spreading that project throughout the community.

According to Tim Noonan, ACHS guidance counselor, the board of education has approved the forming of a task force made up of representatives from the administration, the faculty and the board, to review the current policy's philosophy, to determine if any changes are needed and also to adopt other programs that might be more effective.

Admin. Gary Allen says that he has seen no increase in drug and alcohol abuse at the school in the last few years, but this project would go along with the nationwide fight against drugs.

Noonan says that fighting drugs is not only a school issue, but one that must be expanded to the community.

When the policy is set, it is hoped that the school will be joined on the task force
by the parents, the elementary schools, the churches, the police department and the community's service organizations in fighting teenage drug and alcohol abuse in the Antioch area.

Allen and Noonan say that there is no way that they could tell if drug and alcohol abuse is affecting the results of the ACT and PSAT tests or the number of seniors that seek a higher education since the school has remained in the 50 percentile nationwide and has had about half of the senior class heading for college for the last few years.

The school has been stressing higher academics and has implemented some new academic policies this year.

The school implemented a weighted grade program this year wherein taking and passing certain more difficult courses will give a student one additional grade point.

The board has also eliminated the choosing of one class valedictorian and one salutatorian who were honored at commencement exercises in the past.

"We feel that the weighted grade program will more fairly produce about one dozen "cum laude" graduates to be honored at this year's graduation," says Noonan.

Along with the weighted grade program came the influx of students to math and science classes.

According to Admin. Gary Allen, the school is looking at some of the old industrial arts classrooms to see if they can be remodeled to accommodate the increase in math and science classes.

Forest preserve counts record deer number

The Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. and the Illinois Dept. of Conservation at one point counted a record 76 deer on the Ryerson Conservation Area. The deer were counted by two certified wildlife biologists during a helicopter census. An additional 30 deer were counted on private properties east of Ryerson.

Forest preserve district officials were pleased with the quality of the survey but are deeply concerned by the exceptionally high number of deer sighted. This is the third consecutive year that the forest preserve district has been able to count deer on Ryerson by helicopter.

Previous counts were 32 in 1987 and 52 in 1988. The most recent count shows a continued increase in the number of deer on the nature preserve, representing a minimum of 88 deer per square mile. Deer biologists stated that the density of deer on Ryerson was the third highest recorded among all preserves surveyed during a six-year study of deer in Cook, DuPage and Lake Counties. Eighty-one deer were counted on private and county properties south of the nature preserve.

The helicopter count is part of a comprehensive three-year program initiated by the forest preserve district to manage deer numbers on Ryerson Conservation area. The plan calls for reducing the size of the herd to about 15 deer per square mile, or 12 animals on the 550-acre area. Some local residents have opposed reduction of deer numbers. Because deer numbers statewide are at an all-time high, state policy limits translocation of disease-free deer to bonafide zoological facilities that have deer enclosures.

The forest preserve district and local residents are cooperating on moving deer to the few sites that meet these criteria. Wildlife experts have indicated that use of contraceptive implants will not reduce herd size, but that contraceptives may help control deer numbers if used following herd reduction. Therefore, to achieve reduction some deer will be either live-trapped and humanely euthanized or shot by professional marksmen with all venison being processed and donated to charities.

The deer remaining on Ryerson will be radio-collared and released, which will allow the forest preserve district to intensively study their behavior, population dynamics and movements over three years. Next summer, the forest preserve district will recapture the radio-collared deer and use contraceptive implants in an experimental attempt to help offset the high productivity of the herd. Ryerson naturalists plan to use the public volunteers to help relocate and observe the marked deer.

Contact Ryerson naturalists Nan Buckardt for more information and updates.

Deer trapping

The trapping of deer at Ryerson Conservation Area near Deerfield has thus far been successful, reports C. Richard Anderson, Forest Preserve Dist. president. Deer are being relocated to the Wildlife Prairie Park near Peoria as their permanent new home. The first seven days of trapping has produced 14 deer. Four deer were fitted with radio collars and were released back into preserve for future birth control research. Eight deer made trip to Peoria and two died of stress.

Antioch police nab Turkish drug dealer

After a one-month-and-one-half investigation, the Antioch Police Dept., acting on a Lake County Crime Stopper's tip, along with Lake County MECS agents, arrested a Turkey national who is living in Antioch, charging him with drug dealing.

A search of the home of Cengiz

Cavusoglu, 22, at 713 Lake St., in Antioch, unearthed an ounce of cocaine with a street value of $2,800.

According to Lt. Charles Watkins of the Antioch Police Dept., five Antioch policemen and eight MECS agents, armed with a search warrant, raided the apartment on Lake St.

Cavusoglu is suspected of conducting drug traffic between Antioch and Turkey. A passport found in the apartment showed that Cavusoglu had been in Turkey four months ago. He was taken to Lake County jail where he was charged with unlawful possession of a controlled substance and intent to deliver a controlled substance.

The intent to deliver charges rose from the fact that the cocaine was divided into several plastic bags.

Unlawful possession is a Class 1 felony with a maximum penalty of three to six years.

The intent charge is a Class X felony carrying a six to 30 year penalty.

Candidates toss charges

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

In an article on the front page of the Feb. 24 issue of the Antioch News-Reporter, the last few graphs of the story were inadvertently deleted.

The remainder of the story concerned candidate for Antioch Twp. Sup. Frank Sullivan's charges that incumbent Jim Fields ran afoul of his own constituents on the Lake County Board during the controversy about the proposed purchase of the Red Wing Marsh-Deer Lake land by the Lake County Forest Preserve.

Fields admits that he did oppose the acquisition "as it was presented" because he was against the forest preserve taking the properties in question with the owners being notified after the fact.

Although the possibility that some of these 1,000 acres will be eventually purchased by the forest preserve exists, Fields says that he would back acquiring about 600 acres, but adds that he no longer is in fear of the land's preservation. "The Village of Antioch (which announced its backing of the conservation of the area from the beginning) has already hired a planner to look into the conservation of the land and to work on the property's preservation, so I see no need for the forest preserve to acquire it for preservation reasons," says Fields.

Sullivan suggests that Fields had options open to him during the controversy "by buying rights to purchase the land at such time that the landowners or their children or grandchildren decide to put the property on the market."

"This would have put a cloud over that property, giving the forest preserve the upper hand since property owners would have to go to the district for virtually all improvements or changes made to the property," said Fields.

Sullivan's other suggestion that the forest preserve purchase development rights, meets with the same thumbs down attitude from Fields.

"Buying development rights is throwing the taxpayer's money away

Senior becomes radio star

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(312) 395-5380

If you live off of Grass Lake Rd. or Bluff Lake Rd. in Antioch, you are probably used to the familiar sight of Pat and Bill Lepsi taking their daily brisk walks. Pat and Bill believe that these daily jaunts keep them well both physically and mentally, and knowing them, I thoroughly agree.

Pat was forced to "temporarily" give up walking due to recent foot surgery. However, even surgery did not keep this active senior citizen home glued to her screen. Pat's

Resort rebuilt

The old Northshore Resort, that was destroyed by fire several years ago, has been completely rebuilt. The new owners, Bill Georgeson and Pam Molczan, opened their doors on Wednesday, Feb. 15. If you are in the area, stop and introduce yourself to Bill and Pam. They are presently open for ice fisherman and in the summer they will have boat slips available. The establishment has been renamed "The Northshore II".

Elvis newspaper

Elvis buffs, pay attention!

Walter Martens, Colin Dent, Jason Lesko, and Frank Nava. Congratulations to you all on earning this award.

Skandia House opens

A new area restaurant opened its doors for breakfast and lunches about a year ago. It is the Skandia House on Grass Lake Rd. Recently it also opened to the dinner crowd on Friday and Saturday evenings. I decided to give them a try for dinner and could not believe that at 8 p.m. a table could not be had. It looks like Skandia's dinners are as delicious as their breakfasts and lunches. A warm welcome to the area to Eva and Robert Napier and Janice Martens.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Donna Schemhl on her new job as the Welcome Wagon worker in the Twin Lakes area. If she calls you to "Welcome" you to the area, make sure you make an appointment to let her visit, as she has loads of nice gift offers for you in her pretty red basket.

Get Well

A belated get well wish to Gary Groh. Glad to hear your shoulder and arm are back to normal following your recent accident. I understand your speedy recovery can actually fall into the miracle category. Is it true your doctor's treatment and the wifely TLC did very little to relieve your pain, while the sight of your idle snowmobile brought about a miraculous recovery?

Remodeling problems

Ray Barusman, rumor has it that the remodeling of your family room is at a standstill. Someone told me you estimated the height of those eight foot walls and now you have "eighty" seven foot, two by fours to get rid of. Ray, may I make a suggestion, next time you decide to play carpenter, try using a ruler before dashing out to the lumber yard!

President's Day

The students at Camp Crayon preschool had fun making cherry tarts in honor of George Washington on President's Day. As they were preparing their cherry treats, the teachers told them the story of George Washington's infamous cherry tree. Noticing several children hanging on their every word, the teachers thought it was wise to mention why it would never be a good idea to chop down a cherry tree.

Easter Parade

Circle March 18 on your calendar for a day of fun in Antioch. The Easter Parade and Egg Hunt will begin at 10. If you are interested in participating in the parade, call the park's office at (312) 395-2160 or stop in to pick up a parade application.

Spelling champions

The following students at Grass Lake School have won the individual classroom spelling bee championships. Tuesday, Feb. 28, they will be competing for the all-around school championship, and the winner of that contest will go on to compete in the sectional contest at Shady Lane School on Thursday, March 14. Fourth grade winners: Paul Grob, Kristine Franzen, Danny Jorudd, Cindy Jones, Jason Rosser. Fifth grade: Jon Utians, Kelley Brausam, Christer Jorudd, Lisa Priller, Frank Nava. Sixth grade: Rhonda Garwood, Michele Whitman, Matt Schultz, Jeff Fleshman, Erica Wagner. Seventh grade winners: Jessica Stella, Mike Bradley, Willy O'Donnell, Jenny Kocal, April Kleich. Eighth grade: Kathy Harris, Missy Olenick, Jim Kornfeind, Rich Castillo, Chuck Miculinich. Good luck to you all. May the best person win.

Birthdays

The following people will be celebrating birthdays during the Month of March: Jon Utians, Beth Boerman, Carrie Hiller, Corry Hansen, Jim Schemhl, Sr., Dino Parenti, Sylvia Vaughan, Candice Kasprzak, John Hudson, Jeff La Forge, and Almee Kitto. Congratulations and Happy Birthday to you all.

Hellos

A hello from Lizard to Rose and Larry Reich, Ray Liss, Tony Santiemmo, Charlene Komperda, Chris Priller, and Robert Olenick. Remember, if I say hello or happy birthday via this column, you must call me with your news tidbits. Till next week, stay happy and healthy, and when you call remember to "ASK FOR THE LIZARD"!

Dist. 36 offers special education

Consistent with the philosophy that all children are entitled to a free and appropriate public education, and Article XIV of the school code of Illinois, Grass Lake School Dist. 36 provides a number of special education services for exceptional children.

Exceptional children are those who may exhibit handicapping characteristics in the area(s) of physical disability, social or emotional development, specific learning disabilities, retarded intellectual development, and/or speech defects and language development.

Special education instructional programs and supportive services, including diagnostic services, are available to exceptional children who are between the ages of three and 21 and who are enrolled in the local school district. Depending upon the nature and severity of the educational need, programs are either provided by the Special Education Dist. of Lake County or at the local level.

The annual screening to identify handicapped students will be conducted by Dist. 36 on Thursday, March 9, and on Tuesday, March 14.

The screening will include, but not be limited to identifying those children who exhibit problems which interfere with their educational progress and their adjustment to the educational setting.

Any Dist. 36 parent who has questions or concerns relevant to the development of their child may request an appointment for a screening by calling Grass Lake School at (312)395-1550.

Hometown Goodies

enthusiastic praise of her excellent treatment by Dr. Lee Tisa of Antioch and the American International Hospital in Zion, has won her fame and fortune.

Tune into WKRS on your radio dial each day. Sometime during the day you will hear Pat telling the world how wonderful she was treated by the doctor and hospital. Leave it to Pat to turn a negative into a positive.

She is now starting back to her daily walks

She is moving a little slower right now. Hopefully slow enough for you to catch her and ask her for her "autograph"! Glad to have you up and around again, Pat. The neighborhood was not the same without you.

Grass Lake ski trip

The junior high at Grass Lake School had another evening of fun on Friday, Feb. 17, at Alpine Ski Resort. I understand it got so cold toward the end of the evening a few teachers walked into the lodge with frozen faces and were temporarily speechless. A student's dream come true. If a teacher can't talk, how can she give homework? Right kids? Wrong, don't forget there is always the blackboard.

How would you like to get your hands on an "original" special edition Memphis newspaper, dated Aug. 17, 1977? The paper is devoted entirely to the life and death of Elvis--The King! If interested, contact the Lizard for further information.

PTO thanks

The PTO Yearbook Staff of Grass Lake School would like to give a special "thank you" to Bernie Keefer and Sue Anderson for all their assistance in getting out the yearbook flyers, etc. They truly appreciated it. Also thanks to all the students, teachers, and parents who submitted photos for the yearbook. Through so much joint effort, everyone should be pleased when they receive their copy of the 1988-89 yearbook.

Braves of the Week

The following students at Grass Lake School received the "Brave of the Week" award. Third graders: Mickel Corrigan, Tami Edelman, Jenny Gates, Candice Kasprzak, Rachel Larson, Shelley Schaaf, and Steven Spencer. Fourth graders: Paul Grob, Renee Hackney, Cindy Jones, Dan Jorudd, Dale Kitto, Jennifer Lentine, Sean O'Donnell, Jason Rosser, Josh Walsh. Fifth graders: Jeremiah Buss, Crystal O'Brien,

Larson runs for board

Dorothy Larson is one of four candidates opposing incumbent Antioch Village Trustees Rod White, Ron Cunningham and Vern Barnstable in the April 4 election.

Larson, a native of Antioch, is a graduate of its school system. She has been attending village board meetings since there was a zoning problem in her neighborhood.

She is interested in her village and feels she is as qualified as the rest of the board members to represent the people of Antioch.

She is married, has two sons and is employed as an office manager for Dr. Ed Warner, dentist.

CORNS AND CALLUSES

Although corns and calluses are so common, many people-especially the elderly-fail to deal with them properly.

Corns and calluses are layers of dead skin that build up into a hardened mass. They can be painful when they press on sensitive nerves.

"Treating corns or calluses yourself can be harmful, especially if you have diabetes or poor circulation," the National Institute on Aging advises. "Over-the-counter medicines, advertised as cures for corns, contain acids that destroy tissue but do not treat the cause."

Your podiatrist can determine the nature of corns and calluses and can recommend treatment, which may include obtaining better-fitting shoes and/or pads, medication, and surgery.

Scout Troop 92 wins annual Klondike Derby

As usual, and for the fourth consecutive year, Antioch's Boy Scouts of America Troop 92 won first and second places at the Lakes Dist. Klondike Derby sponsored by the Northeast Illinois Council.

Troop 92's Wolves Patrol and Senior Patrol were among 12 patrols that competed in eight events. Each patrol was scored for its ability to properly complete such activities as first aid, fire building, orienteering, knot tying, sled construction, sled racing, log hauling, and ice rescue. For each event the patrols were scored for their use of patrol resources, the length of time required to complete the event, teamwork, and patrol behavior.

The derby's first place Wolves Patrol included Dan Weston, patrol leader, Gene Brown, Dave Stachel, John Thelen, and Matt Vandrush.

The second place Senior Patrol included Brian Paschke, patrol leader, Steve Goetzelman, and Dave Weston.

Matt Aschbacher was one of the Scout judges. Troop 92 credits their victory to the hard work of the Scouts in preparing for the event and the training provided by Scoutmaster Dick Weston and Assistant Scoutmaster Bill Goetzelman.

In other activities, Troop 92 created a winter camping scene as part of the Lambs Farm Winterfest. Participating were Scouts Goetzelman, Paschke, Dan Ravens, Scoutmaster Weston, and Paul Heitich.

Troop 92 conducted a winter campout at Camp Patowatmic, Wis. at which they prepared for the district first aid meet and cross country skied.

Attending were Scouts Matt Antonelli, Gene Brown, John Harting, Paschke, Dan Weston and

Dave Weston, Scoutmaster Weston, and Committee Chairman Tom Aschbacher.

Troop 92 is sponsored by Antioch's Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 525 and conducts its weekly meetings on Tuesdays from 7 - 9 p.m. at the Antioch Scout-house. For information about the troop contact Scoutmaster Dick Weston at (312)356-9269.

Emmons committee pushes for referendum passage

The Emmons School Citizens Committee has met twice in the last few weeks compiling material and strategies for the April 4 referendum.

Appointed by the Emmons School Board with the mission of successful passage of the referendum, the committee has been reviewing proposed building plans, school finance and enrollment projections of Emmons School.

The proposed $1.6-million building addition/renovation will add five classrooms, science lab, library, remodel the existing building to provide three classrooms, and required handicapped entrance.

Besides the building referendum, the other issue for Emmons voters to decide on April 4 is a 49-cent increase in the education rate. Because of the increase in enrollment, additional funds will be needed for more teachers, instructional supplies and equipment.

Emmons Citizens Committee is comprised of more than 30 Emmons residents who represent the various subdivisions, parents, senior citizens, Emmons alumni, area businesses and civic groups. The general chair is Lou Korom and the committee chairs are Carolyn VanPatten (finance), Sandy White (publicity), Kitty Wiegand and Janet Quist (get out the yes vote).

At the third meeting on March 1, the Citizens Committee reviewed an informational flyer to be mailed to all Emmons voters and planned the March 16 district open meeting for all interested citizens.

Letter to the Editor

Fetes school
Editor:

I am writing to compliment Antioch Consolidated School Dist. 34 for the excellent job it has been doing in providing an exceptional educational value to our community and to request support for the district's upcoming tax referendum.

My youngest daughter graduated from Dist. 34 in 1987. Our family had the opportunity to live in three other school districts as she was progressing through grade school. In my opinion, none of the other districts provided a better quality of education.

As a plus for Antioch, a full range of athletic and music extra curriculars was provided. I firmly believe that the quality of education available in Antioch reflects favorably on home values in our area, as we found housing to be more expensive here than in the other school districts.

It is also my understanding that Antioch has one of the lowest cost/pupil ratios in both Lake County and the State of Illinois. Districts across the state spend an average of almost $4,000 per pupil. The Lake County average is over $8,900. Antioch Dist. 34 spends less than $3,000 per pupil!

Even though Dist. 34 is spending much less than the average school district per pupil, it is projecting a deficit of approximately $320,000 for the coming school year.

If it weren't for the economics that Dist. 34 has built into its system, this deficit would be considerably larger.

The Dist. 34 deficit must be eliminated. There are only two ways that this can be accomplished. The first option would be for the district to cut back on the programs and quality of education available to the children of our community.

This will rob our children of opportunities throughout their lifetimes and will cost all of us, as taxpayers, significant sums by reducing the value of our homes.

The other choice is to pay a modest tax increase, close the budget gap, and allow the district to continue to provide the opportunity of a lifetime to the children of our community.

I will vote "yes" for strong property values and a continuation of an excellent educational program for our children.

Rizzo intends to make legal history in lawsuit

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

The saga of Antioch Detective Ernie Rizzo's lawsuit against Antioch resident Sally Wojtkiewicz, having gone into a new phase which includes an amended lawsuit making her attorney Michael Cummins a co-defendant, now may make legal history.

The legal history part will arise if testimony taken from cellular phone conversations by Rizzo is allowed in court, making it the first time for such action in an Illinois civil case.

Rizzo and the detective agency that employs him, Investigations International, both having had license troubles with the State of Illinois, won all four cases against the state with Rizzo acting as his own lawyer.

He then filed suit against Wojtkiewicz for $15,000 in damages and $100,000 in punitive damages for slander. Part of the suit concerns her testimony to state officials which Rizzo claims was an important factor in one of the state lawsuits.

Now Rizzo has filed a five count lawsuit naming Wojtkiewicz's attorney Michael Cummins as a co-defendant.

Cummins and his client are being sued on five counts for $1,000 in real damages and $100,000 in punitive damages, making a total lawsuit of over $5 million.

As of press time Cummins claims he has not been served, but Rizzo reports that the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. has served Cummins.

Rizzo presented a copy of the complaint filed in Lake County Circuit Court on Feb. 3.

Rizzo says he served Cummins himself but "he has 30 days to admit he's been served."

Cummins denies making any slanderous statements about Rizzo in phone conversations to his client or otherwise.

He also claims his client is also not guilty of slandering Rizzo, saying that all she did was call the county to question structural things taking place on her neighbor's (Rizzo) property.

Cummins big question is why an influential detective like Rizzo, who claims to have the Vatican as a client, and has gone up against the State of Illinois in court four times, is taking time to fight against a "white haired old lady" in Antioch.

Rizzo's answer to that is "There comes a time when you have to make a stand, I ignored her for two years but she didn't go away. She has humiliated my family and caused damage to be done to my property."

Rizzo also claims that he will be able to use transcripts of the "slanderous" conversations between Wojtkiewicz and Cummins despite the client attorney privacy law because he also has transcripts of Wojtkiewicz repeating those conversations to other people which nullifies the privacy immunity.

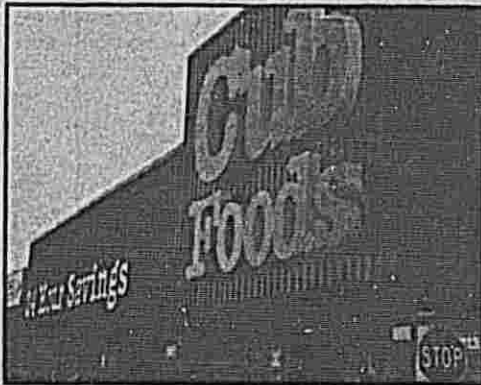

Cummins said that he has asked Rizzo for these transcripts of phone conversations (which he says must be turned over before the July court date by law). They were supposed to be turned over by the end of February but Rizzo failed to do so.

Rizzo says that the transcripts have to do with other amended parts of the lawsuit and Cummins call for the transcripts came under the first part of the suit, therefore he did not turn the transcripts over.

Although Rizzo says that Cummins will now have to withdraw as Wojtkiewicz's attorney because he is a co-defendant in the lawsuit, Cummins told this reporter at press time that he had no such intentions.

Cummins is still calling for everybody's cards to be put on the table "to get this thing settled" before it reaches court adding that he intends to file another motion for dismissal.

Shoppers benefit from supermarket explosion

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

Supermarkets have exploded in west Lake County during the past month. This has shoppers dancing with savings glee and given fits to the major players.

Supermarket roulette is being played in the Round Lake area.

For more than one dozen years Eagle had the Round Lake area market to itself. Ten years ago came the Jewel, the major chain in the Chicagoland area, which became the anchor of Round Lake Commons at Rte. 83 and Rollins Rd.

Opening of what is billed as an "Omni Superstore" in the Mallard Creek Plaza a few blocks away came in January. This was followed by last week's new Cub Food store at Rte. 134 Fairfield Rd. on the opposite side of Round Lake.

This clustering of supermarkets around the same intersections or along the same thoroughfares follows a national trend started several years ago by the fast-food business. The logic is numbers help draw customers and, in turn, generate more sales.

"Somebody knows or anticipates something," said Dan Raftery of Lake Villa, a vice president with Willard Bishop Consulting Ltd., food-industry consultants based in Barrington. "Other places for expansion in the Chicago area are saturated. Lake County is growing and the stores want to grow right along with the population. We are seeing an example of what happens when an area grows like west Lake County is."

It's too early to see who will get hurt, Raftery said. Will it be Eagle, Parkway Foods with stores in Grayslake and Fox Lake, Cedar Foods in Round Lake, Stop 'n Save in Round Lake Park, Pik Kwik in Fox Lake, Van's in Gages Lake, Aldi's in Round Lake or none of these? All of this makes for stiff competition, which, as the old saying goes, "Is the lifeblood of business but the death of profits."

All of which makes the consumer the big beneficiary. Cub does it with a weekly special like last week's broccoli and cauliflower for 18 cents a pound. Jewel offered grapefruit for five cents each, gallon of Fieldcrest ice cream for 89 cents

Where the battle is being waged

Customers are winning the war being waged by supermarkets for share of the growing consumer market in west Lake County. They are benefitting from the loss leaders used to draw customers and the overall low prices. With Cub and Omni as the new players in the Round Lake area, Eagle and Jewel are pushing to hold the market share they have built over last 10 to 15 years.

and catfish for $1.89 a pound. Eagle had $1.18-a-pound pork chops, $1.39 for five pounds of sugar with a coupon and 16 ounces of cottage cheese for 89 cents.

"There will continue be lots of loss leaders," said Ed Hall of Grayslake. A 30-year veteran of the food business, he served on the Roundy's Foods board of directors for four years and was chairman of its advisory committee for eight years while running stores in Grayslake and Libertyville. Roundy's is the largest food wholesaler in the midwest serving stores like Parkway and the first warehouse food stores, Pick 'n Save.

"Cub, Jewel and Omni advertise everyday low prices or the lowest possible," Hall said. "So they offer a $1.49 gallon of milk or something special to get you in the store. After you're there the prices, on the average, are about the same. There's only so many prices a store can cut. You can't put up a building, stock it, pay the help, the utilities 24 hours a day and give food away."

"With all of the Omni grand opening advertised specials I would guess the Jewel manager ended one week by asking himself 'What happened' when the bottom dropped out of sales," Hall said. "Eagle and Omni probably are asking the same now Cub is advertising loss leaders."

Profit margin in the food industry is in the area of 1 percent. "Some stores are lucky to hit 1.5 percent," Hall said, "and are thrilled with even 1 percent."

It takes five years for a supermarket to become firmly established and profitable. This time frame might be cut in fast-growing west Lake County where new shoppers have fewer loyalties.

Most supermarkets expect to draw from a 10 mile radius. Mid-to-major supermarkets have sales of $500,000 a week and up. A Cub and Omni look for $800,000 to $900,000 a week in sales and more. Smaller operations like Parkway, Cedar Foods and Pik Kwik expect $200,000 to $350,000 per week. They draw customers from a three to five-mile radius.

Dick Welton, mayor of Gurnee and owner of three food stores is the newest big-leaguer in Lake County. He parlayed Welton's County Market in Gurnee, which he likes to call a small Cub store, into a Cub in Mundelein and, now, Round Lake. "This forms our core," he said of the triangle-shaped complex of Cub's. "We want to not only protect the market these stores serve, but draw customers from 20 to 25 miles away," he said of reaching Fox Lake, Wauconda, McHenry County and even into Wisconsin. From here he plans to expand Cub's presence in Illinois. "I want to be on the offensive instead of defensive.

"To do this you need everyday low prices as well as strong perishables," Welton said of a strong produce section, in-store bakery, delicatessen and floral section.

Welton regards Jewel, Eagle and Omni some of the best competition in the food industry. They also respect him. When Welton's name is mentioned in the supermarket trade, people sit up and take notice.

Neither Welton or Hall believe the smaller stores will be hurt by this intense competition. If anyone might feel the competitive pinch it could be the Aldi's outlet in Round Lake. It is not considered a full service store shopped week in and week out.

"Parkway is what we in the industry call a niche store," Welton said. "That store will always have customers because of its quality, convenience and personal following." The same is true of independents in Round Lake, Fox Lake and other communities. "That's because some people never change stores or shopping habits," Hall said.

"Oh, sure, maybe once or twice a month people will spend $100 at Omni or Cub, but for 25 items, gallon of milk or pound of margarine, they will buy it at the independent stores," Hall continued. "These stores also handle the smaller sizes convenient for smaller households."

Hall said a smart shopper could save just as much money at a small, independent store as a major one. "If you look at their ads you'll see a whole menu planned," Hall said of a possible promotion for some type of pork with, maybe, an apple sauce special, lettuce for a salad, canned peas and a dessert.

"The Cub and Omnis of this world may have a smaller profit margin, but they have to pay for the building, the stock, help, insurance, lights and all else," Hall said. "There is also just so many people with food dollars to spend. Right now I would guess they are spreading them around."

Looking to the growth of Lake County, new dollars will arrive to be spent in the Cub's, Omnis, Jewel and Eagle. Then, the market will most likely be stirred up again by the arrival of a new competitor.

Despite the intense competition on the local supermarket scene nothing is expected to change in the standings. Jewel is the undisputed leader. Dominick's with its Omni store is No. 2. There is no real No. 3 although Eagle might qualify. But with all of these and the independents the customer is No. 1 and, at this point, the winner.

Comparative shopping list

Shopping trips to the four major players in the Round Lake supermarket war turned up some interesting comparisons.

This shopping list contains common, everyday items needed to prepare several meals. Some prices are for nationally-advertised products, others are house brands and, where a generic brand was lowest, that was selected.

Some prices are advertised specials, others are in-house promotions. In no case was a coupon used. Using manufacturer's coupons or those from the store's flyer would have reduced the cost.

Prices are for the advertised shopping week of Feb. 22 through March 1.

Ordinance targets temporary vendors

by SUE MATYUS

The Hawthorn Woods Village Board is debating a proposed ordinance for the taxation and regulation of temporary and transient vendors within the community.

The board listened intensely as Village Atty. Thomas Good described the details of the proposed ordinance, which is still in its final drafting stage.

"Some minor revisions need to be made, but basically, this is a very typical non-controversial ordinance," he stated. "We are not reinventing the wheel."

The new ordinance is a tax on temporary businesses set up for all special events in the village.

Good indicated that similar ordinances from other neighboring municipalities were looked into and used as guidelines for this particular proposal.

Acting Village President John F. Harchut added that this is an appropriate tax on all itinerant merchants and transient vendors who conduct retail sales within the Hawthorn Woods corporate limits.

"The purpose of this ordinance is not only to license vehicles and stands, but for control and liability concerns," Harchut said.

"We know that Hawthorn Woods is growing, and so we are just looking down the road for possible future events, activities and temporary businesses," he added.

Other board members also voiced concern over liability and suggested the possibility of imposing insurance requirements on the temporary vendors.

Good concurred with these concerns and stated that the requirements would become more a matter of enforcement.

In other matters, the Parks and Recreation Committee determined that a flexible but formal policy needs to be established regarding the cash donation agreements made by developers.

"Our main concern to protect is the donation agreement," stated Trustee Daniel H. Lau.

"We need more certainty with developers--more than just a letter of credit in case of undue hardship."

Lau suggested attaching a time frame payment plan to the cash donations.

The committee will examine a new policy at the next meeting.

Other business discussed was a request from Lake Zurich School Dist. 95 asking the board to consider a monetary donation for a proposed 23-acre athletic field complex located directly north of Lake Zurich High School.

The board agreed to host additional information meetings regarding the proposal, but reiterated its policy against donating to any taxing body.

We're driving down the cost of insurance.

BUSINESS

Mundelein

According to a survey released by the National Assn. of Accountants, corporate controllers see higher sales and profits, as well as increased employment levels for the next 12 months. Jerry Caslavka, a national director of the organization and resident of Mundelein, said the Lakeland area should equal or exceed the predictions of the survey. The NAA survey was conducted using the 3,200 members of its controllers council which consists of corporate financial executives responsible for the budget and forecasts of their firm. Seventy-two percent of the NAA's controllers council expect 1989 sales for their own firms to increase by 10 percent from 1988 levels.

Classic Mini's shelves are not yet full, and Bruski is currently taking requests for more items customers would like her to carry. She plans to stock up heavily on picnic items including hamburgers, hotdogs, buns and pop to service her regular customers, as well as area boaters and campers. "We hope it's going to be helpful for everybody," Bruski said.

Checking up

Mike Lesperance (right), owner of MHI Construction in Island Lake, relays some last minute details to his concrete foreman, Dave Stade, who is filling in for another employee by operating the tractor. Unlike many construction companies, MHI works all winter.

Lesperance says he likes to keep his men busy so that he can be sure MHI will have the same "great" crew of 25 when the weather warms up and business increases. MHI Construction handles underground jobs including sewer, water, excavating and concrete.

Lesperance, 26, succeeds with MHI

by KIMBERLY BOLTON
BUSINESS EDITOR

When Mike Lesperance graduated high school in Wauconda's class of 1980, there weren't many job opportunities available. Lesperance worked small jobs for several different contractors while he saved the $550 it cost for a carpenter's card.

Now, Lesperance owns a construction company employing close to 30 full-time people, a 5,000 square-foot building for his business, six pieces of heavy construction equipment including tractors, backhoes and bulldozers, and insures 18 trucks.

Lesperance began MHI Construction four years ago after working in downtown Chicago for two years as a trimmer. He says he decided to start his own business because he was tired of the long drive back and forth to work. At that time, Lesperance began MHI by constructing homes. Two years later, he started buying heavy equipment and now limits his business to underground work which includes digging and setting foundations, installing city sewer and water lines, and putting in septic fields.

Lesperance said he decided to accept only underground work because there was excessive competition in the housing industry. His overhead costs were too high to allow him to compete with the "ma and pop" builders who use their homes as offices and don't invest in much equipment.

According to Lesperance, there is not as much competition in underground work as there is in above-ground construction because people can't afford the expensive heavy equipment. Lesperance affords it by putting all of his profits back into MHI. He said that he pays some of his men a higher salary than he pays himself so that he can reinvest his profits. He added that, at 26, he is the second youngest of his employees and chooses to live modestly while he builds his business.

Lesperance admits that business is going well for him. He said that as soon as spring comes, he doesn't have to go out to

Business profile

Name: Mike Lesperance

Age: 26

Business: President and owner of MHI Construction in Island Lake.

Philosophy: "I believe that any company that's going to be successful has to be professional. We have a fully-staffed office so that we are available at all times. I also believe that it is important to treat others like you want them to treat you...That's the way to run a company."

find work. It comes to him.

One reason for Lesperance's success is that he believes in running a profitable business 12 months a year. Lesperance's reason for working in the winter when the work is tougher on the equipment and each job takes longer to complete, is that it keeps his men busy. He employs the highest quality people in their fields and ensures that they will be with him from season to season.

"We've got 25 good guys and I want those same 25 guys in the spring," Lesperance said. "If you don't keep help busy, they'll go somewhere to stay busy." Lesperance added that most construction companies lay off their employees in the winter and don't always get the ones they want back to return the next season.

Having a highly competent crew keeps MHI's profit margin high in the spring and summer months. Of course, Lesperance said, work in the winter is done on a smaller profit margin, or none at all, but the summer months make up for it.

The reason the winter months aren't as profitable as the warmer ones, according to Lesperance, is that extra care must be taken in performing services and the weather slows the work down. For example, concrete cannot be poured when the temperature is less than 10 degrees Fahrenheit and when it is poured in this cold a temperature, extra steps must be taken in setting it.

Lesperance allows himself one week away from MHI every year in November when he goes alone on a hunting trip to Vermont to the place where he was raised. He said his wife and two-year-old son go on their own vacations twice a year to Florida to visit her grandparents. Lesperance needs the time to think about his business and his life while he is away, and believes it is important for his son to get the chance to know his great grandparents.

"I believe a person should get to know his roots," he said.

Lesperance modestly cites his reason for MHI Construction's quick success.

"The reason it's going so good for us isn't because I'm a genius, or inherited a lot of money. Me and a lot of other people have spent a lot of time in prayer. That's why it's going so well, because the Lord has blessed us," Lesperance said.

MHI Construction is located at 4015 Roberts Rd. in Island Lake. The number is (312) 526-1135.

DCCA offers audits

The Illinois Dept. of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA) offers a program that will assist businesses by delineating areas within the business where energy can be saved. DCCA will conduct an energy audit for any interested business within the state.

An audit consists of an energy auditor from DCCA's Small Business Assistance Bureau making an appointment to visit the business site and walking through the business with the owner/manager. Areas of energy waste are pointed out and low-cost, no-cost energy conservation recommendations are provided by the energy auditor. These suggestions can save a business five to 25 percent of their annual energy costs.

Contact DCCA's Small Business Hotline at 1-800-252-2923 for more information on the free energy audit.

Class improves first impression

First impressions in business situations can be critical. To help students develop the skills to make that first impression a good one, the College of Lake County is offering a class titled "Business Communication: Steps to Success" (GSN 035). The class will be held at the Southlake Educational Center on Saturday, March 4, from 9:30 a.m. to noon. The course fee is $25.

Participants will develop skills in interviewing, meeting new clients and giving public presentations. They will also learn how to release creativity, overcome inhibitions, build confidence and self-esteem, and become more spontaneous through improvisational theatre exercises.

The instructor for the course is Joanne Goodman, who is affiliated with B&G First Impressions of Chicago. She has her own professional troupe, the Activators, and teaches improvisation and presents seminars on improvisational business communication.

For more information or to register, call the Southlake Center, 1860 First St. in Highland Park at (312)433-7884.

Porter studies use of land at Ft. Sheridan

BY MIKE PRAMSHAFAER
Lakeland Newspapers

Although local residents are fighting to keep Ft. Sheridan open, the fate of the base doesn't seem to be getting any better as even Cong. John Porter (R-10th) has admitted that "it doesn't look very good."

Porter, in a media luncheon held in Deerfield last week, said congressional support for the closure of Ft. Sheridan as well as 85 other military bases is very strong and that a cost savings of $693 annually ($41 of that from the closure of Ft. Sheridan) is the main force behind the desire to close the bases. "I don't think we'll save as much as Congress thinks by closing Ft. Sheridan because we'll have to build housing complexes at Ft. Benjamin regardless, and that won't be a minor expense."

Two of Porter's main concerns as well as the residents who live near the base, which is located in Highwood, are lost jobs and what will happen to the land once and if the base is closed.

The congressman said he has been holding public forums to get feedback from the residents on what they feel should happen to the land. "It's kind of a tough situation at this point. I'm trying to do two things; one is to first try to keep the base open; and two is to try to find out what the people want to do with the land should the base close. One thing the people have to understand is that I'm fighting two battles at once here. I'm not giving up on trying to keep the base open, but I do have to start thinking about the consequences if it should close.

"If I wait until a decision is made on the base before I start thinking about what to do with the land, it will be too late and we'll end up with something we don't want and something we're not very proud of."

According to Porter, Congress has 45 legislation days before it has to take any action on the Ft. Sheridan issue. The deadline for closure of the base has been set for 1995.

He said residents have expressed options for use the land, which covers 728 acres, including recreational adding to the 10-acre cemetery already on base, a historical site to promote tourism, new housing developments, preservation of open space, etc. Many local officials have been pushing the open space option.

Inland Real Estate is the first bidder for the base and has just made a $52 million bid for the base, all cash, with no mortgage contingencies. Inland President Joseph Cosenza said the offer is not contingent on any annexations by any village, nor contingent on any zoning requirements.

Inland is giving the Pentagon 24 months to close the deal, and has asked for rights to the name, "Fort Sheridan," in its future development of the property.

Republican leaders on special task force

Illinois House Republican leader Lee Daniels (R-Elmhurst) has announced the creation of an eight-member special task force to review legislation regarding impact fees.

Daniels appointed State Rep. William Peterson (R-Buffalo Grove) as chairman of the House Republican Task Force on Impact Fees.

"The goal of this task force is to reach a reasonable solution for the collection and distribution of impact fees," Daniels said. "We must find a fair way to pay the heavy costs put on communities by rapid development, without stifling growth."

Due to the urgency of this issue, Daniels said the task force will conduct public hearings on March 6 in Wheaton and March 13 in Lake County. In addition to Peterson and Daniels, also serving on the task force are State Reps. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa), Mary Lou Cowlshaw (R-Naperville), Don Hensel (R-West Chicago), Dick Klemm (R-Crystal Lake), Thomas McCracken (R-Downers Grove) and Terry Parke (R-Hoffman Estates).

The task force's two meetings will be open to the public. To schedule testimony with the task force, contact Kate Coler of the House Republican Staff at (312)917-2053.

Sectional 'bee' starts March 9

Students from 130 public and non-public schools in Lake County will participate in three sectional spelling bee contests on March 9, 13 and 14.

The sectionals will be held: Section 2 - March 9 at West Elementary School, 1319 Washington St., Waukegan; Section 1 - March 13 at Wilmot Elementary School, 795 Wilmot Rd., Deerfield; and Section 3 - March 14, Shady Lane Elementary School, 101 Hawthorn Ln., Fox Lake.

Approve double-bunking

In light of the much-welcomed "lock 'em up" frame of mind on the part of the judiciary, it's more than a little disconcerting that Lake County's new jail, part of the $29-million Babcox Law Enforcement Center, will be overcrowded before it opens in a few weeks.

With a design capacity of 240, the new jail will fill easily considering that population at the old jail at 18 N. County St., Waukegan, averaged 235 a day last month. Because of the mushrooming mail population, county officials have started to study a double-bunking system to deal with overcrowding.

According to Michael Waller, deputy chief of the criminal division of the Lake County State's Attorney's office, county board members have the authority to implement double-bunking coupled with a green light from the Illinois Dept. of Corrections. They shouldn't bat an eye. Neither should the public or those citizens concerned about inmate welfare. With some minor modifications, new cells can accommodate another occupant with little difficulty. In a sense, taxpayers will be getting an extra return on their investment in state-of-the-art incarceration in a hurry.

At the same time officials implement double-bunking, they might as well start making plans to complete the sixth floor and part of the fifth floor left unfinished for future expansion to 430. It looks like that "safety valve" will be called into play long before anticipated.

Kinder, gentler race

Considering all the campaigns going on for local office, some of them getting to the point where the fur is going to fly, the race for mayor of Waukegan stands out as a model of gentility. And it's likely to stay that way.

In neighboring communities, speak out about your choice and get ready to duck. But not in Waukegan where James Eschenbach and Jim Keagle are contesting for mayor.

Both currently are serving as village trustees and are in mid-term so no matter who wins in April, the loser still will be involved in village government. Keagle and Eschenbach were running mates when elected two years ago. They are friends and express respect for each other. They agree on a number of issues about how Waukegan should be governed, including the current hot potato about how many boat slips should be granted a developer of waterfront property on Bang's Lake. Both reached the decision about a year ago that their village should have a change in administration in the 1989 village elections. Eschenbach and Keagle wished each other well when they decided to run for the same office.

It will be a mistake, though, to think that it will take a coin toss to decide who is qualified to lead. Keagle and Eschenbach do have differences and none is more pronounced than whom they regard as supporters. Eschenbach points with pride to the fact that he owns allegiance to no special interest groups. Keagle says he is proud of the various organizations that are supporting his candidacy. The two friends are 180 degrees apart on the role of retiring Village Clerk Venita McConnell, a force in both village and Republican politics. McConnell is running for a seat on the village council as a member of the Eschenbach ticket. Keagle made public that there was no place on his slate for McConnell when she was deciding about her future in politics because of philosophic differences.

At this point, the friendly competitors are insisting that the race will be issue orientated. No mudslinging will be allowed. Could it be that Jim Keagle and James Eschenbach have taken to heart President Bush's admonition for American to become a "kinder, gentler nation?"

Letters To The Editor

Less space, more revenue

Editor:

There is a new make-up of the Land Acquisition Committee of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. since the last elections. It has been quoted as saying it has over $9 million already appropriated and has bonding power of about one hundred and five million more, and it plans to spend it as soon as possible.

The Forest Preserve Dist. now has about 13,500 acres of land and $25 million in debts, and it talks about acquiring 40,000 acres more! The county only has about 290,000 acres. Forty thousand of this would be about 15 percent of the whole county! Even so, the open space people want additional "Open Space Districts" in each of the townships! Most of us are for reasonable open space. There are thousands of acres in the Forest Preserve now, and many other thousands of acres of private lowland, etc., which cannot be built on. Why take more huge areas off the tax rolls?

See what is happening

Editor:

I was raised in Round Lake when the water in the lake was crystal clear. Last summer my heart broke when I stood on the shore and saw weeds and pollution overtaking the beautiful lake I worshiped as a child. And yet, they, the profit mongers, are trying to put more pollution into the lake by piping the drainage from a shopping center into the waters.

What is wrong with our generation? Why are we destroying our environment? When will we wake up to the fact that we are killing everything beautiful. When it's gone? Too late then!

I see children throwing rocks and refuge at ducks that inhabit our Chain O'Lakes. What are we teaching our children? These children will be the guardians of whatever is left after our generation kills what we have now, with our population and misuse of our natural beauty. Parents, please teach your children to respect the beauty of our lakes area.

God gave us our environment to enjoy, not destroy. Please, people, take a good look. See what is happening.

Can't stand more taxes

Editor:

Another property tax hike? Grant High School is placing a tax rate referendum on the ballot this April advising that the "last education tax rate was approved in September 1967." Comparing our property tax bill of 1967 to 1988 the increased monies going to our schools is quite substantial. Increases in our assessed value, the equalization process, etc. has raised our property taxes and subsequently raised the amounts going to the schools. Governor Thompson as well as President Bush are proposing ways to help the education budget of the states and the country. Hang in there educators. Sympathize with the seniors who have just been hit with the largest income tax increase in the history of this country (the Medicare surtax) and understand why we cannot stand another property tax hike.

Pigging out won't be problem with this list

by BILL SCHROEDER

Can you leave the Twinkie in the cupboard for one day? Can you forsake that sugary morning doughnut for a bran muffin?

That's the challenge raised by the American Cancer Society for the Great American Lowfat Pig Out, a day-long celebration of healthy foods and good nutrition Thursday, March 9.

No problem for this overweight correspondent, ACS. I hate Twinkies and I dig food containing bran. Lowfat Pig Out Day will be a breeze for me. OK, so how come I'm still on the overstuffed side?

The answer to that question ranges somewhere between how to lower the national deficit and how to get high school boys and girls thinking about something other than high school boys and girls. The point of Pig Out Day, according to the Cancer Society, is to focus on foods that research indicates may help prevent cancer. From my place at the table, the list is surprisingly broad with plenty of variety. Recommended foods include:

HIGH FIBER FOODS—whole grains, wheat and bran cereals, rice, plain popcorn, whole wheat bread, peaches, strawberries, potatoes, spinach and tomatoes.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES RICH IN VITAMINS A AND C—carrots, peaches, apricots, cantaloupe, grapefruit, oranges, strawberries, tomatoes, red peppers, green peppers, squash and broccoli.

CRUCIFEROUS VEGETABLES—broccoli, cauliflower, cabbage, kale and Brussels sprouts.

LEAN MEATS, POULTRY, FISH AND LOWFAT DAIRY PRODUCTS—as replacements for high-fat meats and dairy products.

ADDING LAURELS—Jay Robert Nash, who cut his teeth in the writing business as a young newspaperman in Antioch and west Lake County, has added new credentials to his reputation as a world-renowned crime author and historian.

Nash now is rated an encyclopedist with the introduction of his Encyclopedia of World Crime, a five-volume, ten-million-word literary effort expected to be a prime reference for crime buffs, authors, law enforcement officials, psychologists, sociologists, lawyers, historians and criminologists.

Early books on Dillinger, J. Edgar Hoover and "Bloodletters and Badmen" set the tone for Nash's career in crime writing, leading to television appearances, more books and the 12 volume Motion Picture Guide, a 25-million word encyclopedia on films.

Nash operates his publishing business out of a office-studio in Chicago where he lives and has work space for a dozen researchers. "This whole thing is crazy, but I love it. You sort of get caught up in this," Nash remarked.

land trust owner of the vacant property at the southeast corner of Rte. 45 and 120 was petitioning for shopping center zoning preliminary to annexing to the Village of Grayslake. In attendance were residents of the village as well as a great number of residents of the Arbor Vista Subdivision which abuts the subject property to the south and east.

Arbor Vista homeowners were very ably represented by an attorney who also lives in the subdivision, John Sanders. Sanders pointed out to the zoning board that the petition for zoning was legally defective because the petitioner had failed to furnish an affidavit from the owners of the land trust identifying the beneficial owners. Apparently some employee at a Chicago bank had prepared a disclosure statement that was not signed by the owners nor did it make reference to who owned the property on the date that the petition was filed. The attorney further pointed out that the information on record showed that the beneficial interest is stated to be owned by one Victor Cacciatore, the head of a large Chicago law firm which did or does condemnation work for the Illinois Dept. of Transportation.

The Illinois Dept. of Transportation does the condemnation work for the State of Illinois in acquiring highway right-of-ways. If the Rte. 53 extension is approved as the result of the process now pending, Rte. 120 will be improved to a four-lane highway eastbound and that extension would run right through the Cacciatore property!

There were other arguments made by Sanders and his group against the rezoning, but the important thing was that in spite of the disclosures suggesting the impropriety of the action, the zoning board approved a motion to recommend the shopping center zoning to the village board with favorable votes from all members present except Fred Schaefer, who alone observed the problem and had the courage to vote against the motion.

I'm concerned and alarmed that the zoning board would act in such an arbitrary and capricious manner without first investigating the unusual facts brought to their attention. If the innuendoes are correct, the real reason for rezoning the annexation to Grayslake is to enhance the value of the property so it can be sold for a higher price to the State of Illinois. Grayslake need not be part of such shenanigans.

WALL STREET IS FULL OF BULLS, BEARS AND BUM STEERS

Politically Speaking

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

There are lots of Republicans in this part of the world. One of the biggest is Al Jourdan, chairman of the Illinois Republican party.

The McHenry Republican is not only tall and robust, he has clout. No, he can't get a parking ticket fixed, but he is more than willing to tell you how to do it—by paying.

One night last month he was introduced at a political rally. "If everyone worked as hard and tirelessly for the party," the man who introduced him said, "there wouldn't be a Democrat left in Springfield."

Who would give their mother something like a can of sauerkraut as an anniversary present? F.T. "Mike" Graham, Libertyville Twp. supervisor, that's who.

Actually, it is a fine-old family tradition going back many years. It happened because Mike's mother and father were married on Valentine's Day.

One Feb. 14 Mike's father stopped at the grocery store on the way home to buy the makings for his favorite dish—pork hocks and kraut.

Shortly after he walked in the door his wife asked: "Do you know what day this is? Are you going to give me a present?"

"Yes, I have something," he said sheepishly reaching into his pocket. He pulled out the can of just-bought kraut. "There, now you can't say I didn't remember."

Mike and his mother have been sharing this one since his father died in 1948.

Newsman Charlie Johnston hopes to make it big in the PR world. After almost one year with WKRS following a slightly longer stint with this newspaper, he is now on special assignment and occasional weekends for the Waukegan radio station. The change is his choice, he said.

This gives him the rest of the week to devote to clients like schools, travel agencies, political parties and, hopefully, a developer. He prefers not to name them for competitive reasons.

But he doesn't mind what he calls a volunteer labor of love for

Betty Ann Moore

John Porter

Al Jourdan

the Avon (Twp.) 1st Party. Led by Grayslake trustee Russell Christian, it is running in the April election against incumbent Sup. Norman Geary and his Avon Good Government Party.

Station Mgr. Hal Coxon said Johnston is not on the radio regularly because of his political PR connections. He also said Johnston will not broadcast any political commentary, for which he gained some notoriety, in the weeks leading to the April election.

Johnston also said he is working with the Libertyville Twp. Taxpayers Party running against incumbent Sup. F.T. "Mike" Graham's Citizen Conservative Environmental Party. "I'm trying to get the two parties talking," he said about a deep-seated desire to see both incumbents defeated. "Norm and Mike talk," Johnston said. "Why not their opponents?"

Election signs are popping up everywhere. These are to remind all of us of the candidates in the Tuesday, April 4, election. Some of those running have so many signs it is overwhelming. This gives voters the false impression the candidate is the man to beat. "Not so," says Larry Lenzen of Grayslake. "Remember, signs don't vote."

People like Congressman John Porter (R-Wilmette) of the 10th Dist. are making lots of noise about the closing of Ft. Sheridan. He and those directly concerned don't want to accept the fate of this and 85 military bases nationwide.

Starting March 1, Congress has 45 legislative days to prevent the closings from taking effect.

Porter is hollering almost as loud as Republican Congressman Edward Madigan of downstate Illinois. Madigan is disputing the closing of Chanute Air Force Base at Rantoul. It is the third oldest non-flying military base in the nation. That closing will cost 1,100 civilian and 3,000 military jobs.

If Ft. Sheridan goes so will 1,600 military and 1,500 civilian jobs.

Porter and Madigan refuse to take no for an answer. Everyone else can see the handwriting on the wall. There are 435 members in the House. Only 35 are directly affected by the base closing bill.

Mark this one on your breakfast calendar. The Lake County Democratic Party will hold a brunch Sunday, March 12, at the Gurnee Holiday Inn from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. It will honor all Democratic candidates in last year's campaign wars. Cost is $15 per person. For tickets call party Chairman Betty Ann Moore at (312) 816-8303.

Thanks to outgoing mayor

Editor:

It's almost time to elect a new Mundelein mayor. But, before we do, let's take time to thank outgoing Mayor Colin McRae for his many years of fine public service, both as mayor and former village trustee.

We often seem to take for granted the service rendered by our elected officials. These people attend countless meetings, miss family meals and events, use immeasurable personal and emotional energy, spend hundreds of hours on the phone, deal daily with public and village pressures, and constantly let village business interrupt their full-time work. (Remember, this is a very low-paying second job.) And all the while, rarely, if ever, do they get a word of thanks. Regardless of your politics or theirs, let's express our gratitude. We can start with outgoing Mayor Colin McRae, whose dedication, hard work and commitment to Mundelein should not go unthanked.

Control plan an outrage

Editor:

The gun control resolution proposed by school board member Thomas Kapheim is an outrage. His resolution calls for, among other things, eliminating "the sale and ownership of all handguns and semi-automatic weapons, excluding rifles." If Kapheim has his way, the resolution will become state law. Kapheim's proposal is an affront to all law-abiding citizens within our community for several reasons.

First, Kapheim is using his position on the school board to subvert the U.S. Constitution under the pretext of making schools safer for children. This is inexcusable, since the primary responsibility of a school board member (and all other citizens) is to uphold the laws of the land. Furthermore, neither Kapheim nor anyone else was elected to the school board to pursue a particular ideological agenda at the expense of neglecting other pressing matters confronting our schools.

Second, Kapheim's proposal is devoid of logic and reason. The vast majority of empirical evidence shows that gun control laws are ineffective. Most of our nation's police officers concur with this conclusion. A recent questionnaire sent to every major police official in the country demonstrated that 97 percent "believed that a firearms ownership ban would not reduce crime or keep criminals from using guns." A recent study supporting this belief concluded that even if 90 percent of American handguns vanished, there would still be 40 percent left for every handgun criminal.

Third, the gun prohibition measures hawked by Kapheim are immensely unpopular. Only one-sixth to one-third of the nation's citizenry favors a handgun ban, and it is probable that the number of people in our community favoring such a measure is much smaller. In addition, a 1979 survey of Illinois gun owners indicated that 73 percent would not comply with a gun prohibition. Few people in our community would tolerate the confiscation of their favorite pistols or auto-loading shotguns, an action Kapheim apparently advocates.

It is crucial that everyone appalled with Kapheim's half-baked proposal write school board president Daniel Quick (in care of Wauconda High School, 555 N. Main St., Wauconda) to express opposition to the gun prohibition scam. Also, the next time Wauconda school board elections roll around, remember who upheld your constitutional rights and who tried to throw them out the window. In the meantime, don't let a lie become law.

No ethanol, why not?

Editor:

For five years I did not have to add gasoline antifreeze to my car's gasoline tank, not even when the temperature went down to 25 degrees below zero.

When we went on long trips, by the number of miles we could drive before I had to refill the gasoline tank, I know that we got more miles per gallon, when we put gasoline with ethyl alcohol in the gasoline tank.

Ethyl alcohol is miscible with water. It mixes with water so that the water cannot freeze up the fuel line. Ethyl alcohol is the only alcohol we used in the biology laboratory I worked in preparing microscope slides of plant and animal tissues. We distilled the 95 percent pure alcohol to get rid of the methanol. Why? Methyl alcohol (methanol) would make the thin tissue sections milky and virtually opaque. Methanol alcohol was not miscible with water and plant and animal tissue oils. Only ethyl alcohol without methyl alcohol worked.

Now millions of people will have to add gas-line antifreeze containing methyl alcohol to their gasoline tanks again. Where can we get gasoline with ethyl alcohol (ethanol) so that we won't have to add methyl alcohol to our gasoline?

School for everyone

by DR. DANIEL J. LAVISTA

February has been national Community College Month, a celebration centered on the theme "Where America Goes to College." The College of Lake County, which has served the educational needs of Lake County for 20 years, takes special pride during its anniversary year in noting the achievements of more than five million students who took credit classes at America's community colleges last year. That figure, representing 41 percent of all undergraduate students and 55 percent of all first-time freshmen, clearly points to the significant role community colleges have in providing access to affordable, quality higher education to all Americans.

The significance of the community college mission becomes more apparent as we see what it means to us closer to home. In Illinois, community colleges served approximately half of the students enrolled in undergraduate higher education in 1988. And the proportion of Illinois population served by community colleges (15 of every 1,000 residents) is the sixth highest in the country.

Last year at the College of Lake County, over 50,000 people pursued their educational goals through enrolling in courses, participating in workshops, and attending seminars or other college programs. The goals of those individuals vary widely—they may come to CLC for two years of college credit before transferring to a university for career training, for professional development, for small business consulting, or for job training. But by meeting their educational goals, they help themselves and create a stronger Lake County.

The core of CLC's mission is to create opportunities for individual success, and the college continues to assess and find ways to meet the needs of the community even in trying fiscal times.

A recent study showed 92 percent of Lake County residents surveyed said they have a generally favorable impression of CLC. Most respondents cited CLC's excellent faculty and broad range of courses as reasons for holding the college in high regard. Other factors may be our 95 percent success rate in the job placement and university transfer of recent graduates. Students who have gone on to senior institutions have performed as well or better academically than students who started at those schools. Now thriving small businesses have secured start-up loans, and local companies have trained and retained hundreds of employees with assistance from CLC's Center for Economic Development. These and many other success stories are part of the record of accomplishments made possible through YOUR community college.

(Editor's note: Dr. Lavista is president of the College of Lake County.)

Dist. 5's Calabresa joins state Trail Authority

Carol Calabresa, Dist. 5 Lake County board member and forest preserve commissioner, has been voted vice-chairman for the Illinois Prairie Trail Authority. She represents Lake County on the authority which is composed of members from Lake, DuPage, Kane, Will and McHenry Counties. The Prairie Trail Authority was authorized by state statute in January, 1987, with the public purpose of coordinating and maintaining a regional trail system.

Proposed by the authority is a 700-mile network of hiking, biking, equestrian and nature trails—an extensive, interconnected linear park system that would crisscross the entire six-county metropolitan area. It would blend existing trails with new ones, including extensive use of abandoned railroad rights of way and further developing such important corridors as the Illinois and Michigan Canal and the DesPlaines and Fox Rivers.

"The district currently has 44 miles of trails that it manages. Another 25 miles is planned, of which most of the effort will be concentrated on completing the DesPlaines River Trail between Wisconsin and Cook County, and for an east-west trail corridor to the Fox River and McHenry County," said Calabresa.

Geary proclaims 'County Hunger Awareness Week'

Norman Geary, chairman of the Lake County Board, has signed a proclamation declaring March 11-18 "Lake County Hunger Awareness Week". During this week, groups from all over Lake County will be collecting food and bringing it to their local fire stations. The food drive is being sponsored by the Food Resource Council of Lake County.

The food will be picked up from county fire stations and other collection points on March 17 and 18 by the Waukegan Jaycees and brought to a warehouse near Lamb's Farm in Libertyville, where it will be sorted and boxed for distribution to county food pantries, soup kitchens and agencies that provide emergency food to the hungry.

The Food Resource Council is a non-profit coalition of volunteers and representatives of over 70 county agencies that provide food to the hungry. The council has been in existence for two years and has cooperation among agencies feeding the hungry as one of its major goals. Last year's food drive raised over $40,000 in food and funds to help replenish the badly depleted shelves of county food pantries. The Food Resource Council's goals is to double last year's record.

Groups wishing to collect canned goods or donated funds for the drive should contact Barbara Dahl, home economics advisor, Lake County Cooperative Extension, at (312)223-8627.

Anyone, regardless of race, sex, national origin or socio-economic background, is welcome to participate in any Extension education program.

$45,000 sewer fine

LAKE ZURICH—Payment of a $45,000 Illinois Environmental Protection Agency fine has been approved by the village board as part of a consent agreement to bring its southeast treatment plant up to state standards by the end of 1990. Estimated cost of doing this is $3 million. Work has been underway for three months. The IEPA fined the village for what some board members called past and continuing sins, including odors protested by residents of five adjoining subdivisions.

Flag exhibit protest

FOX LAKE—Officials in the Village of Fox Lake and Grant Twp. have denounced an exhibit of an American Flag at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and are requesting that all funding be withheld from the institute until a formal apology is issued.

No pre-annexation

LINCOLNSHIRE—The village board has turned down a request from Lake Partners, Inc. for a pre-annexation agreement on its proposed 35-acre, Anvil Farms development. The request came since the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. has been slow in taking steps to acquire 20 acres of the property. Gerald Vargo of the firm said they want to ensure someone will be interested in the land if the district decides against acquisition, even though the district has given them "every indication" that they will acquire the property. However, Vargo said, some district members have expressed opposition to the proposed acquisition.

'Self gain' charged

ROUND LAKE AREA—County Board Chairman Norman Geary is accusing a group of Round Lake leaders of playing "political football" with the Northwest Lake County Sewer System in trying to create a "super sanitary district." Geary further accuses them of doing it for "self gain." Responding to the charges, Rudy Magna, Jr., legal adviser of the Round Lake Sanitary Dist. said that it's Geary whose pulling a quarterback sneak as a Johnny-come-lately on the sanitary district scene.

Rail line progress

MUNDELEIN—Little has changed since Mayor Colin McRae scrawled on a napkin the first concept drawing of a rail line into Chicago having Mundelein as its northern hub. That was 12 years ago, and progress since then toward this goal has been "like a snowball moving very slowly," McRae said. However, McRae added another small step has been gained by the announcement by Metra that a 46.4-mile commuter line connecting to O'Hare International and Midway airports is one of ten new routes proposed. Metra is the Regional Transportation Authority's commuter rail agency, and will now prioritize the routes, although routes involving Mundelein and also Waukegan appear to be the favorites.

Nab drug dealer

ANTIOCH—Acting on Lake County Crime Stoppers tip, and working with MEGS (metropolitan drug enforcement agency), the Antioch Police Dept. arrested a Turkey national and charged him with possession of and intent to deliver cocaine. Cengiz Cavusoglu, 22, has been charged with having cocaine with a street value just under $3,000 in his possession at an apartment on Lake St. in Antioch. The cocaine was divided into separate packets. He is in Lake County jail awaiting a hearing. Possession of a controlled substance carries a penalty of from three to six years. Intent to deliver said substance is a Class X felony punishable by a six to 30-year prison sentence.

Candidates at forum

GRAYSLAKE—The Grayslake Chamber of Commerce & Industry is sponsoring a candidate's forum, with all candidates running for office in April agreeing to attend. This is the second such forum with 300 citizens in attendance at the first one. It will be held at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, March 16, at the Grayslake High School.

Aldermanic faceoff

WAUKEGAN—Aldermen Haig Paravonian and Donald Weakley will face off in the April election for the right to succeed Robert Sabonjian as mayor. Weakley won the Democratic nomination with 3,107 votes to edge another alderman, Richard Hyde. Paravonian won the Republican half of the Feb. 28 primary with a 1,285 to 1,171 vote edge over Building Commissioner Noah Murphy. Weakley has been an alderman since 1973, Paravonian since 1971.

Thompson wins big

NORTH CHICAGO—First-term Mayor Bobby Thompson coasted to a 3-to-1 victory in Tuesday's primary. He received 1,315 votes to 392 for challenger Patricia Cansler. Since there is no Republican challenger, Thompson is virtually assured of a second term. Thompson won by a 2-to-1 margin in his first mayoral bid four years ago.

WEEKEND/LEISURE

and FOCUS ON FEATURES

Check it out!

ENTERTAINMENT EDITOR

Be there!

Canada's olympic wonder, Elizabeth Manley, is being featured at the Ice Capades when they open at the Rosemont Horizon at the end of March. The program lists the California Raisins that will be skating around the grapevine at the same shindig.

As long as we're into ice, the Zion Park Dist.'s annual ice extravaganza is set for March 17-19. The show on Friday is at 7 p.m., Saturday, at 2 and 7 p.m. and on Sunday at 2 p.m.

To see how those that teach can do, why not visit the faculty art exhibit now on in the community art gallery

County through April 16 to help celebrate the college's 20th anniversary.

Another goodie for art fanciers can be seen at the Millburn Art Gallery in Millburn, from now through April 2, where works by such artists as James Jotka(impressionist), L. D. Saksenhaus and William Stromayer will be shown to the public.

Take note of the Academy Award contest that Lakeland Newspapers and the Rhyon Theatres are running. Win free weekend.

Swingle Singers in concert

The Swingle Singers, a unique acappella group, will present the fourth offering in the Lake County Community Concert Assn.'s current series at Waukegan's West High School auditorium, at 2 p.m., on Sunday, March 5. The group is unique because of the human voice producing scat syllables they use to get instrumental sounds. Critics have hailed the Swingles as 'never less than dazzling,' and called their sound 'skin tingling.'

Stage

David Cale, storyteller/performance artist and crooner, is slated to be at Chicago's Goodman Theatre Studio starting March 7 through March 26.

Chicago chamber musicians will be at the Diller Street Theatre at 8 p.m., on Friday, March 3, a feature of Mostly Music.

Country western lovers shouldn't miss Whitey O'Day at the Last Chance Saloon in Grayslake every Friday and Saturday.

At 6 p.m., on Sunday, March 5, the McHenry County Youth Orchestra Pro Arte Ensemble, 14 young musicians, will celebrate the Woodstock Opera House's 100th anniversary in "An Old Fashioned Gala" at the opera house.

Swing your partner at the community barn dance to be held at the American Legion hall, on Milwaukee Ave., in Libertyville, at 8 p.m., on Friday, March 3.

Music

At 8 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays, March 10 to 25, "Pippin" will be the new production opening at the Woodstock Opera House.

Huck and Jim are still melodiously sailing on the Mississippi in "Big River," the Marriot Lincolnshire Theatre's present offering.

"The Mystery of Edwin Drood," is suddenly very popular in these here parts with Candlelight's premier at the nation's first dinner theater, located on Harlem in Summit, and the Apple Tree Theatre Company both putting this musical/comedy/mystery on stage.

Musical entertainment based on the spooky stories of Ed Gorey, "Gorey Stories," will be on stage this weekend at the Alan Carr Theatre in Lake Forest presented by Lake Forest College's Garrick Players

by GLORIA DAVIS
ENTERTAINMENT EDITOR

Inviting an audience to join the cast during the performance of a play is not a new idea, but it is one that works. Take note of the Candlelight Dinner-Theatre's new offering in the premier engagement of the mystery musical, "The Mystery of Edwin Drood."

Based on an unfinished work of Charles Dickens, "Drood" turns out to be, not only an extremely entertaining, but a very unique theatrical evening.

The music by Rupert Holmes, though well-done in the Dickens' imagery, is acceptable, but not memorable, and the lyrics are often scrambled in their English rhetoric, but the main idea never fails to come across.

The outstanding ingredients here are the marvelous cast and Director William Pullinski's innovative use of his fantastic tiered hydraulic stage for mood and time changes, but mostly just for fun.

The plot of the show turns out to be play inside of a play concerning the mysterious disappearance/death of young Englishman Edwin Drood thus dealing with the question(never answered by Dickens) of "Who killed Edwin Dro-o-o-d?"

When the comedy/mystery plot thickens to the boiling point, at which time Dickens' pen was silenced forever by his death, the audience is told to consider the information already disseminated to it and then vote on which one of seven cast members they think is the murderer.

The play is then finished according to the audiences' balloting with the "murderer" selected by them the focal point of the rest of the show.

The show is full of some of the most marvelous characters ever conceived by Dickens and the cast plays each and every one to the hilt.

Candlelight favorite, Dale Benson does an outstanding job as the chairman who narrates the whole story. Kathy Santen, fresh off of her triumph at Marriot Lincolnshire as Peter Pan, is back playing a lad again with her usual aplomb.

The villain, whom everyone is instructed to hiss and boo), the insane choirmaster John Jasper, is played by Dale Morgan who has mastered the art of the insane look and gesture.

Plaudits go to artfully played character parts, beginning with Denis Lor as Princess Puffer, who steals the scene more than once.

In fact the show abounds with scenegether, our audience gave the play a whimsical ending by coupling-off our heroine Rosa Bud(who was properly sweet and lovely), played by Jill Walmsley, and the old, but lovable wino, Durdles.

This reviewer will admit that she wonders whether or not the end of the play is cut and dried no matter what the audience votes for(who would know since the cast stealing character gems like Larry McCauley's Rev. Crisparkle, Bill Bush's Bazzard, Michael McCauley's Deputy and Tom Roland's Durdles.

Our audience decided that Bazzard, the bum had murdered Drood simply because his part was so small that "Dickens must have had bigger plans for him."

When asked to decide which two actors of the opposite sex should end up totallies the votes), or whether one can see a different ending for the seven nights of the week if the audience so votes.

But that will probably remain a deep dark secret on which the spontaneity of the show depends.

We highly recommend "Drood" for a different and enjoyable way to spend a special evening playing at the country's first dinner theater on Harlem in Summit.

Fascinating Cozumel highlight of Lakeland cruise

by DENNIS and MARY O'BRIEN

The Island of Cozumel, 12 miles off the Yucatan coast, was the first place in Mexico to be visited by the Conquistadors and a stopping place for three centuries of pirates. It was also a training base for U.S. Navy frogmen during World War II.

Lakeland Cruise

The island itself is flat. Its fascination comes from the sea around it. White, sandy beaches, both populated and secluded, are interspersed with coral formations. Beneath the indigo and melted turquoise water are coral walls, caves and tunnels, sunken ships and a myriad of brightly colored tropical fish.

Lakeland Newspapers' cruises will have time for a 35-mile shoreline excursion by car or motorbike. If deep-sea fishing is one's pleasure, a charter can be arranged. These waters are famous for billfish, and white marlin, sailfish, mackerel and grouper are in abundance.

For shoppers, Cozumel is duty-free (except for liquor and tobacco), and the cruise ship terminal is full of shops. Nearby La Ceiba Plaza has an outstanding selection of Mexican arts and crafts and a boutique with exclusive Mexican designed resort wear.

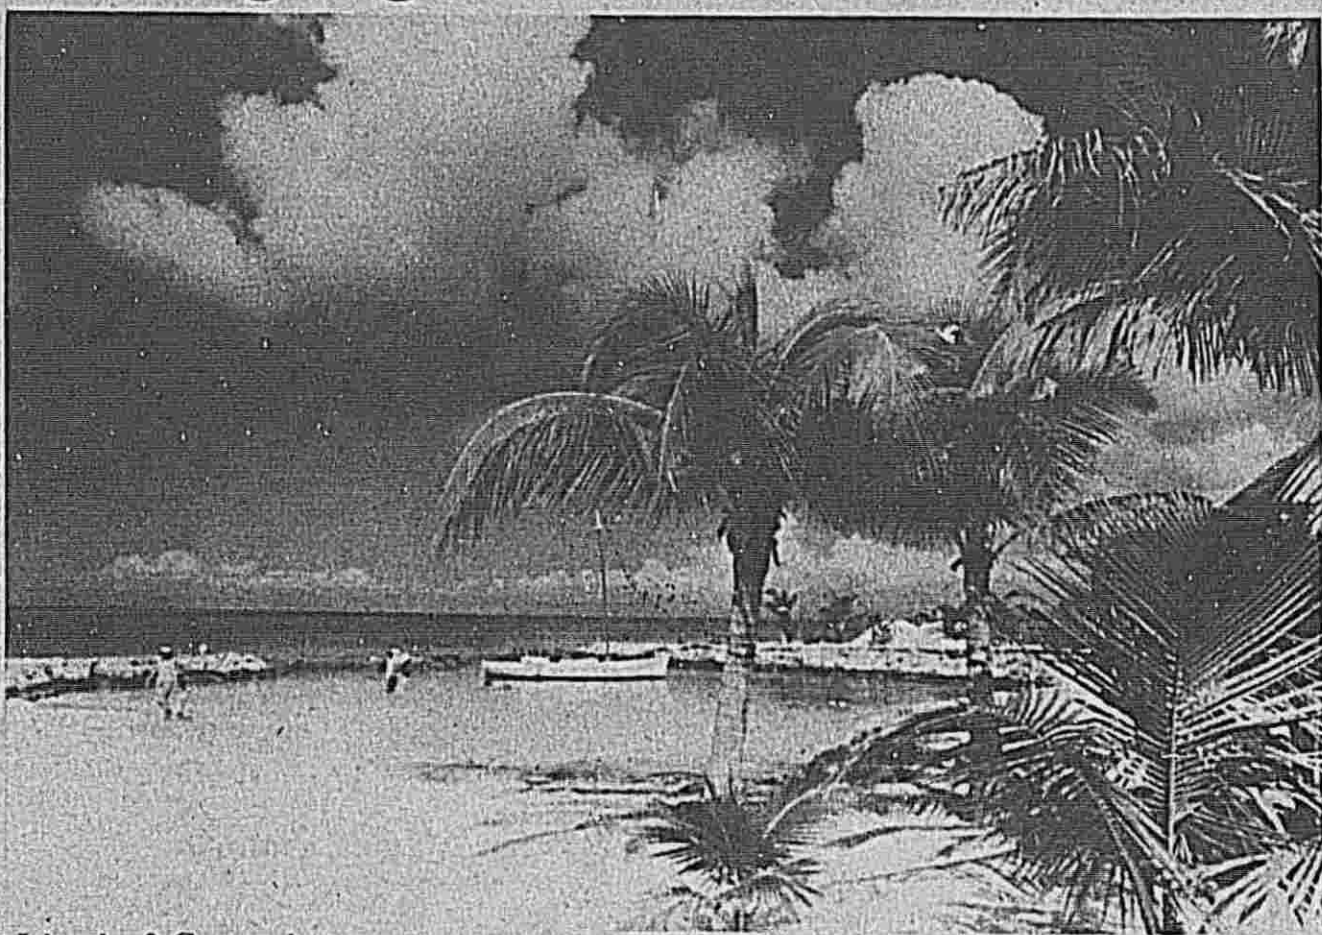

Cozumel's most famous product and its best buy is black coral jewelry. You'll find it everywhere, and prices vary according to workmanship.

The internationally known Palancar Reef, six miles of live coral, is one of the world's greatest reefs, with visibility often extending 200 feet. Scuba diving and snorkeling equipment can be rented at any of the numerous dive shops. If one would rather keep their feet dry, they can view the riot of life beneath the surface from a glass-bottomed boat which leaves from the Municipal Pier every two hours.

At depths of 15 to 35 feet, there are fascinating formations along the shore of Chankanaab Lagoon, and this is the place for snorkelers, especially beginners. There are steps into the crystal-clear water and hundreds of bright, beautiful fish looking for a handout.

With dress codes on the far side of casual and bathing suits essential, Cozumel may be the most relaxed place in the Caribbean. Members of the Lakeland Cruise may want to scuba off Palancar Reef, or snorkel over the coral caves and sunken anchors and cannon off the lovely reef at Chankanaab—or just watch the fish in the lagoon through water so clear that they can be seen from the shore.

LaLaguna, the outdoor restaurant at Chankanaab, provides excellent seafood.

European rail passes offer more than just rail travel

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

If you have never been to Europe, there are some things you should know about transportation between and within the countries making up that continent.

With the exception of Germany, parts of Italy, and a few roads elsewhere, forget any thought of super highways. European roads were engineered hundreds of years ago for horses and donkey carts and haven't changed much. The way to get around is by rail.

European railroads go everywhere, from the smallest hamlet to the known tourist spots. The best part about trains in Europe is that they take you right to the center of the cities. No long bus ride from an airport outside of town.

Most people are familiar with the Eurailpass. It is, by far, the best bargain to be found anywhere. If two people are traveling together, the cost for a 15-day pass can be as low as $230 per person. This gives you unlimited, first class travel between 17 countries.

But let's say you only plan on visiting one country and, maybe, just for a week. Most countries offer their own travel pass, which not only includes unlimited rail travel, but free transportation on city bus routes. Germany, for instance, offers a German rail tourist card that includes the aforementioned, plus free use of sight-seeing steamers on the Rhine River, and even use a discounted rate for bicycle rentals at over 300 railway stations! The cost? A four-day pass is only $75, nine days for $115, and 16 days for $160. These prices are for second class rail transportation. First Class is a little more, but I found the passengers in second class to be much more interesting.

A very important fact to remember is that you must purchase the passes before you leave the United States. They are not available in Europe.

Some final information. Just because you have a railpass does not guarantee you a seat. During busy times, or on heavily traveled routes, you should make a reservation 24 hours ahead. This will cost you an extra $2 or $3.

Just For Seniors

Ways to help people who are having trouble remembering: 1) Try to maintain a calm atmosphere. 2) Some find comfort and enjoyment in a compatible social group. 3) Provide activities that a person might hesitate to do on their own such as going shopping or eating in a nice restaurant. Memory loss is a frightening experience, and people who suffer with it need as much support and understanding as possible.

Studies show that Alzheimer's disease affects more women than men. The reason is not certain, but it is thought that since Alzheimer's is a disease of age, more women contract it because they tend to outlive men.

'Burbs' wastes Hanks

by GLORIA DAVIS
ENTERTAINMENT EDITOR

Tom Hanks, fresh off his smash hit "Big" (won the Academy Award nomination), probably should have picked a stronger follow-up vehicle than "Burbs" which opened across the country last weekend.

Critics Choice

"Burbs" is a comedy mystery that just isn't worth first run prices, but will probably please most VCR fans as being "a good enough show for the money, providing one invites the entire neighborhood for one showing."

The plot is tried and hackneyed one, neighbors get suspicious of weird new additions to the old neighborhood.

Of course here comes the slapstick part as Hanks and two other neighborhoods decided to investigate and proceed in burning the house down in the process.

Are the neighbors, lead by that frightening Henry Gibson, really monster gravediggers as Hanks and his friends suspect? Either pay your $6 or wait six months until the video comes out if you're curious.

Some of the special effects are appreciated but this is a predictable mediocre film with a few laughs and some chuckles in it, yet on the whole, a star of Hanks' magnitude is rather wasted in it.

We give it a middle of the road two-and-one-half stars.

Andre's mystery

Squares awaiting hoedown

An old time barn dance, the "Spring Hoedown", will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 11, at the park district buildings, 42 S. Seymour in downtown Grayslake.

This is the sixth in the current series of traditional barn dances presented by the Grayslake Community Park Dist. the second Saturday of the month. Barn dancing differs from modern "mainstream" and "plus" square dancing in that there is always live music and the dances are traditional. Costume is not important.

All age groups, with or without partners or square dancing experience are invited to attend. When needed, the old time figures will be walked through before dancing. In addition, just before the dance at 7 p.m., free lessons will be held.

Come to the dance and enjoy a folk tradition that people of North America have enjoyed since the founding of their country. The admission is $3 per person. For more information about barn dancing, call Uncle Roy at (312)223-2081.

Andres rehearses thriller

No one should miss catching "Cliffhanger" at Andres Steakhouse (on Rte. 12 in Richmond) in March. This comic thriller by James Yaffe is the final 1989 winter dinner/theatre show of Rosebud Productions. Play dates are: March 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 19, 24 and 25. Call (815)678-2671 for dinner/show times, prices and reservations.

The play concerns the actions of philosophy professor Henry Lowenthal (Frank Greenwood of Round Lake) and his wife Polly (Anne Marie Cina of Mellenry).

After Lowenthal apparently kills his department chairperson, Edith Wilshire (Tracy Kiederlen of Antioch), in a fit of rage, he and Polly try to cover up the crime.

To add thrills and laughs to the covering and uncovering of the crime, we are then introduced to an odd-ball student named Melvin (Rich Foreman of Woodstock) and a police detective, ala-Columbo-type, named Lt. DeVito (Fran Jansta of Antioch).

To find out what happens and to have a funny-bone tickled, come to catch "Cliffhanger" directed by Tom Hausman.

ASTRAL 2

FLOOR PLAN

In the number one spot for 1988, the Astral 2 has proven to be the most popular plan for the third year running.

The Astral 2 is a wonderfully unique design allowing for maximum utilization of interior space and a compelling exterior. Designed for a slightly sloping lot, the Astral 2 would be equally at home in the city or in the country. The central sexpartite living area allows for the striking contrast of angled vertical lines with the more linear horizontal lines of the side wings.

Extensive front and side decking gives access to the expansive great room contained in the sexpartite main living area of the home. This impressive area features extensive oversized windows and sliding glass doors, allowing for a truly panoramic view and taking full advantage of natural light. At the center of this vaulted structure is a six-sided hearth with a central wood stove, which provides separation for the various areas. The dining area is located in the lower angles, abutting the generous kitchen area, which features a breakfast bar, and a huge Butler's pantry as well as a fully serviceable food storage area.

The central area is completed by a generous utility room, which also extends into the left wing of the home.

The left wing also contains two bedrooms, a full bath with double wash basins, and entry into the two car garage. In addition to ample storage space, the garage features a self-contained mechanical storage area.

The master suite is located in the right wing of the home. This separate wing provides both privacy and unity through the use of the connecting deck and the private recessed main entry. An impressive walk-in-dressing closet is located here, as is a large master bath with double wash basins and vanity.

Designed to compliment its environment, the Astral 2 offers the opportunity for stylish and spacious living in a home intended to make the most of available spaces.

For a study plan of the Astral 2 (222-52), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE BY SALOME

Weekly Tip: Tap into affection and warmth.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Channel your feelings into creative work and avoid becoming emotionally wasted. Siblings expect attention and will respect your opinions.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Improve on the quality of life. Check into new sources of income. Social affairs are like a jigsaw puzzle and should be worked out carefully.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Carelessness could become a habit if you let it. There is a flowering of artistic incentive that you can tap into now. Be alert and discreet.

Cancer (June 22 to Jul. 21) Changing environments, in the name of progress, may be a disappointment. Sensitive feelings could disrupt a tender relationship.

Leo (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Complexities, at work and home, are interlocking problems based on an overloaded schedule. Re-evaluate your time schedules. Plan for the future.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Your skeptical analysis of your position at the job site could be right. Determine your future action by examining advantages and disadvantages.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) It is risky to do nothing when a financial problem has been growing day by day. Seek out activities that are more diversified. Check your budget.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Shape travel plans to your own needs. Plan a crusade to save time and money. Join forces with a friend to stir up social excitement.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Exuberant optimism brightens the times and brings compliments from others. A shopping expedition could come off well.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You are entering a crucial turning point in a relationship. Put stress on a down-to-earth approach to achieve the right mix. Look your best.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Wasteful, careless ways are adding to life's confusion. It is a busy time. Continue to emphasize basic and solid skills. Look for openings.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You face a difficult work-related situation. A lively evening may find you in some hot spots. Remember your need for sleep, so don't overdo anything.

If You Were Born Today
You are a generous, intuitive and an impressive charmer. You want to see the world and are sensitive to the needs of others. There is a tendency to drift into a dream world, which is your source for many creative talents.

Soccer sign-up

The Greater Libertyville Soccer Assn. is accepting registration for its spring adult women's instructional program. The spring season will start in April and finish in late May or early June.

The non-competitive program was started in 1985 to develop women soccer coaches and referees by providing actual playing experience. Previous soccer experience is not required but the minimum age for players is 25. Women who are coaching soccer teams who do have soccer playing experience are especially encouraged to register. Regular FIFA soccer rules are followed except free substitution is allowed at any time.

Registration fee for players is $15 and registration forms are available in Libertyville at The Sportsman or Sports 11. Call Sue Chamberlain at (312) 362-4218 for additional information.

The Wauconda Soccer Assn. is opening its registration for "Tiny Kickers" on Saturday, March 4 and March 11 at the Island Lake Village Hall. Registration will take place from 9 a.m. to noon.

The soccer season will open April 10 for five Mondays.

Tiny Kickers are for youngsters whose birthdays fall in 1983, 1984 and 1985.

The fee will be $5.50 with a late registration fee of $8.50 after March 11.

Registration cut-off is March 27.

Batter up!

The Midwest Youth Baseball Organization is making its plans for another season.

The team offers a schedule of games which begins March 21 for baseball players age 16 to 18. Organizational meetings will be held at Grand Slam USA and at McHenry County College in Crystal Lake.

Last year the team, based out of Waukegan, went 32-21 in 53 games, playing in tournaments throughout the Midwest.

For more information, call Ralph Bafano at (312) 662-6025.

Racing show

The 12th annual Babicz Auto Racing Services (BARS) Racing Show will be held Sunday, March 29 to April 2 at the Belvidere Mall in Waukegan.

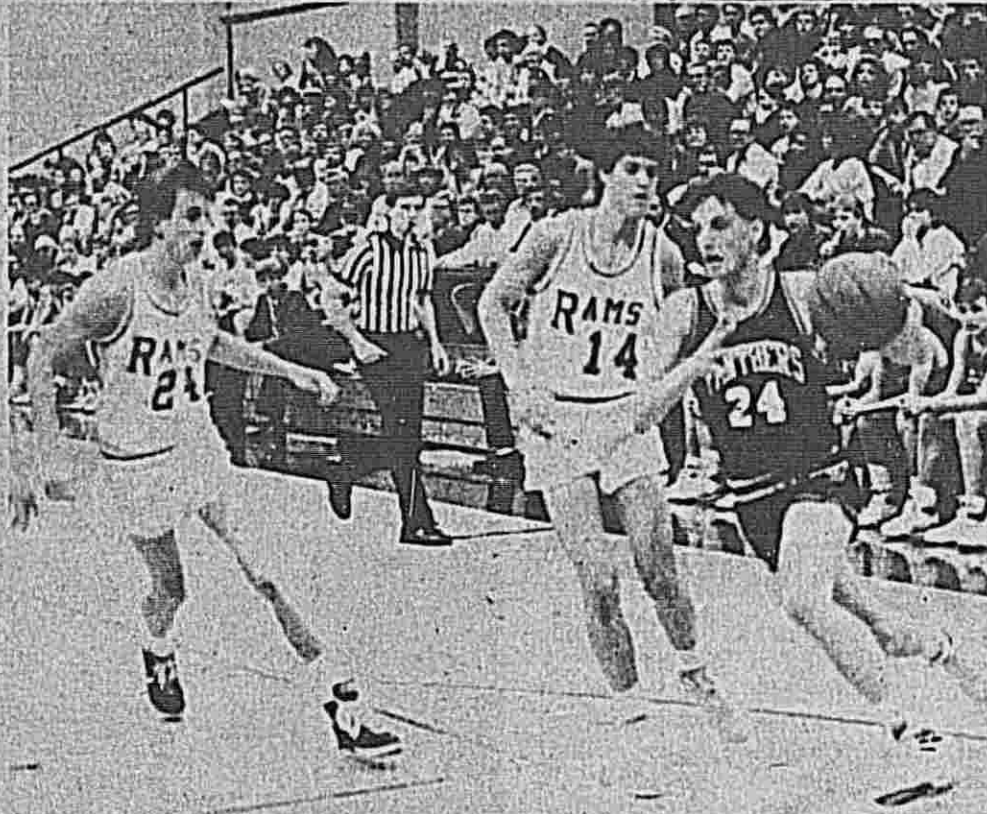

The show, which traditionally signals the green light for motorsports enthusiasts, is free and open to the public during regular mall hours.

Early entries received include John Pochler of Libertyville, two time defending Wilmet Speedway spectator stock champion and his Plymouth Barracuda and others.

The show is open to racing vehicles of all types. Persons wishing to enter should contact Babicz at 1711 Golf Rd., Apt. 107, Waukegan, or phone (312)

Kazlauskis update

Mike Kazlauskis, a Grant High School graduate, is in his sophomore baseball season for the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Kazlauskis, who was all Northwest Suburban Conference in baseball and football, is leading off and playing second base for the Falcons. Through the first eight games, Kazlauskis leads the team in hitting with .565 average, which includes 13 hits and 23 times at bat.

Panthers, Bulldogs set for regional title game

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

The game will be the open book test of the 1988-89 basketball season.

For the third straight year, Round Lake and Grant will clash for a regional title. Both teams won close games in the first round of the Round Lake Regional.

"I don't think anyone expected these two teams to be in the regional final against the players on both teams," Round Lake Coach Bob Ward said.

Ward was speaking Tuesday after the last fan had left the gymnasium and the excitement of two games with rivalries involved was wearing down. Round Lake's 49-46 win over Grayslake in overtime was followed by Grant's 48-46 win over Antioch.

So when these two winners clash March 3, it will pit a .500 team (Grant) and a team close to the break-even mark (Round Lake is 12-14).

In Round Lake's win, one of the few seniors on the team proved to be the hero. For it was a basket and then a rebound of a missed free throw by Doug Watts which gave the Panthers the lead in the waning seconds of regulation.

The Rams came into the regional as the top seed and the Northwest Suburban Conference champs. And after Timm West scored on a buzzer-beating layup for a 46-all tie.

But Grayslake was held scoreless in overtime.

"What hurt us was we got into foul trouble in the first half," a dejected Grayslake Coach Greg Groth said.

West had 25 points as the senior overcame a slow start. Craig Katzenmaier had 12 points but the rest of the Rams were held out of the scoring picture.

Round Lake used its inside-outside attack to a tea to advance for a shot at the Waukegan East sectional. Rick Haines's five three-point baskets gave him 17 points.

Ward credited the play of sophomore Rick Burton and Mark Dittmer as key in stopping Grayslake's guard duo of Tim Hough and Jim Neuman. The Rams were held to a combined six points and did not make one three-point try.

"We felt if we could put pressure on their guards we would be in pretty good shape," Ward said.

Taylor Fiege and Dittmer provided all the scoring the winners would need in overtime.

With the score still tied at 46, Dittmer made the first free throw with 10 seconds left.

He missed the second, but Watts grabbed the rebound and Fiege was fouled. The foul was ruled intentional and he made them both for the three-point lead.

Grayslake still had a shot to tie it at the end although Round Lake had the ball out-of-bounds. Neuman tried a three-point shot to tie the game, but it fell short.

Round Lake had led by as many as nine points at the end of the third quarter, 39-30.

"Coming back shows a lot of character," Groth said.

NSC champion Warren reaches regional final

Warren and Johnsburg, one expected, one not, both advanced after first round of regional play.

The Blue Devils, champions of the North Suburban Conference, reached their own regional finals by beating Mundelein 65-49. Johnsburg reached the semifinals of their own tourney by edging Woodstock 71-70.

For Warren, the third defeat of Mundelein (6-20) was made possible by a 29-10 blitz in the third quarter.

Cory Statham and Nick Sianos paced the winners with 15 points each.

Warren was leading just 24-20 at halftime.

Mundelein received 21 points from Jeff Fuller.

The Blue Devils, a Sweet Sixteen team last year, will play the Carmel-Libertyville winner at 7:30 p.m. March 3 for the regional title.

Key free throws by Alan Van Every paced Johnsburg at home. He hit his free

Cager
Report

Regionals are on center stage this week, so here's a final regular-season cager report:

Warren (20-5): Blue Devils wrapped up fifth conference title in seven years with win over Antioch. And unlike last year's three-way title, Blue Devils did not have to share North Suburban Conference crown with anybody.

Grayslake (17-8): Rams also clinched sole conference title in Northwest Suburban Conference. Third straight game of solid defense and free-throw shooting down the stretch keyed 44-35 win at Grant.

Salem Central, Wis. (14-5): the Falcons are in the poll for the first time after beating rival Wilmet. Falcons tied Burlington for Southern Lakes title at 13-3.

North Chicago (15-10): Warhawks finish season with three-game winning streak by beating Mundelein. Eugene Williams has third straight game scoring 20 or more points.

Carmel (14-11): Corsaris won emotional senior night game against St. Viator 55-49 to finish on upbeat note for regionals.

SCOUTING REPORT

Grant at Round Lake

Date: March 3.

Location: Round Lake High School.

Team records: Grant 13-13, Round Lake 12-14.

Tickets: available at each school.

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Keys to game: Grant won close game over Antioch thanks to clutch free-throw shooting in fourth quarter and 24-point performance from Kip Paul. The inside-outside attack of Round Lake was at its best in 49-46 overtime win over Grayslake. Three-point specialist Rick Haines had 17 points and Scott Hall had 16.

Prediction: it's a tough one to call, but Grant advances to Waukegan East sectional with three-point win.

throws in the final 10 seconds as the Skyhawks improved to 9-16 overall.

Lake Zurich and Wauconda both lost first-round games at the Jacobs regional.

The two Northwest Suburban Conference teams fell victim to fast starts by opponents. Jacobs led Lake Zurich 24-9 after one before cruising in the second half to a 74-55 win. Scott Krzeminski finished his career with a 25-point game.

Wauconda trailed 20-8 after one quarter to Dundee-Crown and the Chargers won handily, 89-47. Gary Discher led Wauconda with 14 points and Dion Niemo had 13.

Stevenson (6-20) also suffered the same fate against host Deerfield. The Patriots fell behind 28-4 after one quarter and the Stevenson never could recover in a 91-42 loss.

J.T. Kellock was the only Stevenson scorer to tally in double figures, as he had nine points.

Sauk Valley KO's CLC, Zeman stresses pluses

The first thing Don Zeman admitted when he took over as head coach of the College of Lake County women's basketball team was yes, this would be a new world.

No more three-levels of basketball feeding into a varsity level; no more regularly scheduled practice times and if a player misses a practice, he faces severe consequences; no more large crowds cheering the home team on.

But now that Zeman has his first season of coaching junior college under his belt, he believes that it was a positive experience.

"After our first seven losses, we played .500 basketball in January and February. I'm pleased with the way things turned out," Zeman said.

The Lancers were eliminated by Sauk Valley in a game at CLC after beating Oakton in the first round of sectionals. The post-season split gave the Lancers, who only had seven players on the roster, a record of 8-17.

The difference in both games was CLC was able to hold an early lead against Oakton but not against Sauk Valley.

"We are not a good come from behind team. Against Oakton, we started out with a lead and never gave it up," Zeman said.

The 71-57 win over Oakton marked the third time the Red Raiders eliminated CLC 66-50.

Teri Huntington, a Warren Twp. High School graduate, led CLC with 24 points in the Oakton game. Jennifer Robison had 17 and Crystal Payne 16 points for the winners. CLC led 34-25 at halftime.

The momentum seemed to carry over into the game against Sauk Valley. The Lancers frustrated the Lady

Red Men for the first 15 minutes of the game, even taking small leads at times.

CLC led 2-0 on two Robison free throws after a minute-and-a-half had elapsed without a score.

CLC led again at 13-12 on a Robison fastbreak and 19-18 as Robison scored 10 of her 14 points in the first half.

With less than a minute to go before halftime, Sauk Valley put on a 6-2 run which gave the visitors a 33-25 halftime lead. The margin grew to 15 points in the second half.

Turnovers hampered the Lancers throughout the game, as they finished with 24.

Sauk Valley enjoyed a 19-10 free-throw shooting edge. Jennifer Renner, who led the winners with 17 points, made 11 of 12 in the second half from the charity stripe.

Huntington led CLC with 22 points and Payne added 10.

The men's post-season play ended early this season. The Lancers finished at 11-20 as the Lancers were eliminated in the first round of sectionals.

Bonjiewicz earns MVP

Senior linebacker Frank Bonjiewicz, a Warren Twp. High School graduate, captured one of the two biggest awards at the annual Augustana College letter dinner.

Bonjiewicz, a 6-0, 200 pounder, was chosen as Augustana's Most Valuable Player on defense.

Bonjiewicz was the team's leading tackler with 113. He had 39 solo and 74 assists to go along with two quarterback sacks, seven tackles for loss, two pass deflections and one pass interception for 17 yards. He completed his collegiate career by being named all College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin (CCIW).

Augustana, under the direction of 10-year veteran mentor Bob Reade, was 10-2 and won its eighth straight CCIW crown.

In other college football notes, three area products will be playing at Northeast Missouri State next fall.

Mundelein's Jeff Fuller and Randy Rentz will join Round Lake's Larry West in Kirksville, MO.

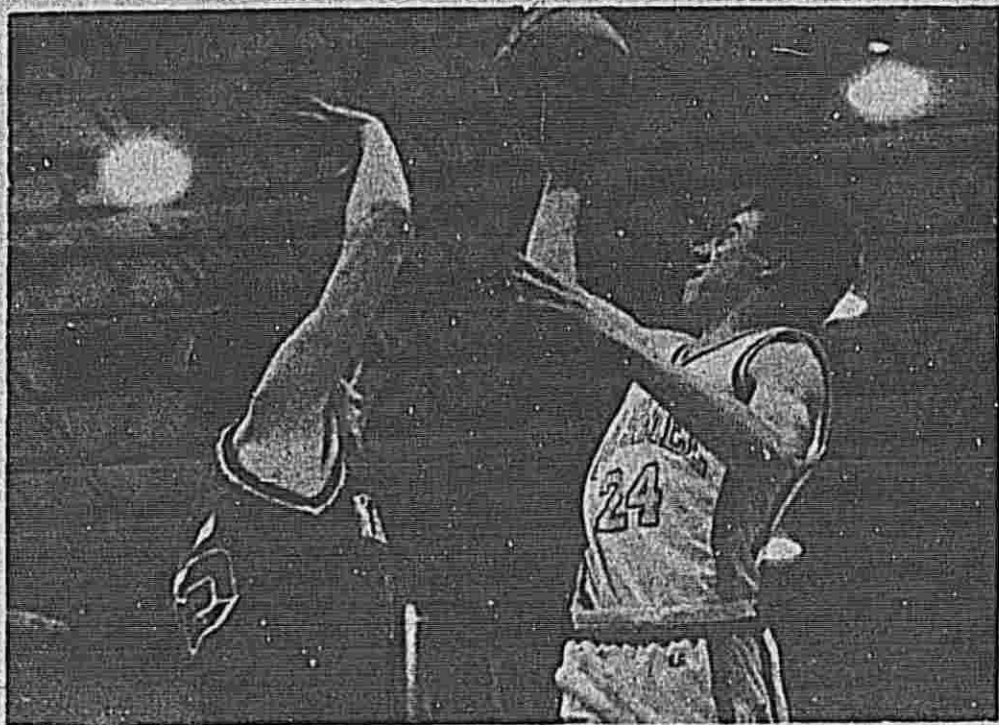

Fuller, a 6-3, 205 pound tight end, defensive back, captured first team all North Suburban Conference honors. He caught 24 passes for 270 yards and two touchdowns on offense.

On defense, he was credited with 40 solo tackles, six quarterback sacks, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries.

Rentz, a 6-2, 225 pound defensive tackle, was voted as his team's MVP lineman and was cited as outstanding lineman at University of Michigan summer camp.

West was captain for the Panthers, was first team all Northwest Suburban Conference, and is a competitive powerlifter.

Rams toot their own horn as NWSC champions

by STEVE PETERSON

Lakeland Newspapers

Grayslake Mayor Ed Schroeder did not declare that the sirens would be turned on if the Grayslake Rams won the Northwest Suburban Conference basketball championship.

So a group of Rams fans, making the trip from Fox Lake, did the next best thing - blaring their car horns as they entered Grayslake Community High School parking lot.

The celebration atmosphere was still strong as the Rams topped Grant 44-35. The win gave the Rams a 12-2 NWSC mark, the outright title and 17-8 overall record heading into the regional at Round Lake.

"This is a great bunch of kids this year," a drenched Grayslake Coach Greg Groth said. "I never felt better. All five seniors and Knigge (Corey, the sixth player), had a great game".

Following the cutting down of the net at Grant, and ordering of t-shirts which, in green and white, read "Grayslake boys basketball - 1988-89 Northwest Suburban Conference champions", Groth and the players pointed to defense and free-throw shooting as the main factors in the win.

"Ever since the Johnsburg game (a 68-64 loss), we decided to go back to the basics. We played super defense the last three games," Groth said.

The Rams have surrendered 24, 36 and 36 points in the last three contests all wins.

Free-throw shooting played a big role in allowing Grayslake to pull away in the final quarter. They made 12 straight, the last two by Tim Hough for a 40-33 lead with 1:18 left.

Early in the contest, it appeared the Rams were ready to duplicate the style they used in a 28-24 win over Marengo.

"We were not trying to slow it down; we were trying to play our game. Everyone did a great job," senior Timm West said.

While free-throw shooting was a plus for Grayslake, it was a negative for the Bulldogs. Aiming to upend the conference champs in a senior night game, Grant made just eight of 20 free-throws. That surprised Grant Coach Tom Maple, whose team came into the game shooting at 67 percent from the free-throw line.

"Generally speaking our top scorer (Kip Paul, held to 12 points) did not shoot well and no one had an above average game offensively or defensively," Maple said.

Both teams' centers, Grant's Jason Bullman and West, fouled out of the contest in the fourth quarter.

The game began with both teams struggling to find the basket - the Rams were two-for-10 but still led 13-9 - at halftime.

The Rams extended the lead to seven points in the third quarter on a three-point play by Neuman, who led the winners with 11 points.

Grant made a run at the end of the third quarter. A three-pointer by Paul cut the lead to 23-20. A layup by Joe Wach to start the fourth quarter brought the Bulldogs to within one.

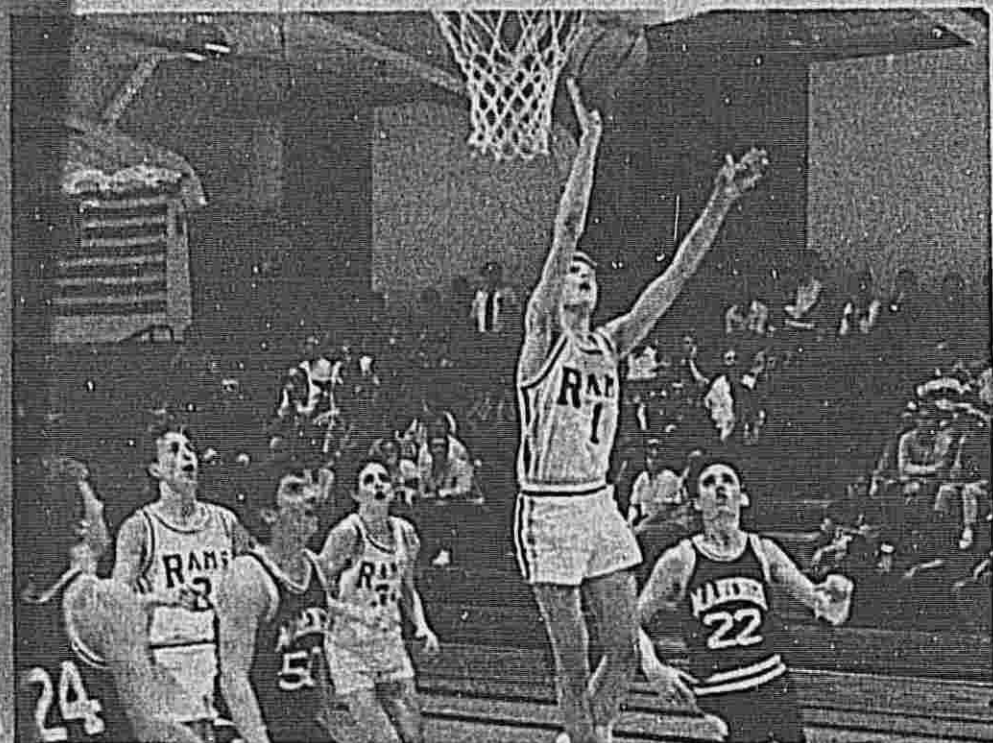

But these soon-to-be champs pulled away at the free-throw line. Hough and West had four free-throws apiece as the lead grew to 34-26 with 3:50 left.

Although certainly pleased with the school's third conference title in its nearly 50 year history, Groth knows there will hopefully be more celebrations down the road.

"We've reached four of our five goals," he said.

The mentor's fifth goal - to win the regional championship.

But then came a brick wall called Round Lake, which ended the celebrations with a 49-46 overtime win.

Neuman eyes two

Grayslake's Jim Neuman seeks two more points in Northwest Suburban Conference game against Marengo. Marengo's Chad Olson and Trent Pace can only watch. Rams won low-scoring game 28-24. Rams went on to claim NWSC title but lost in regional opener to Round Lake.

Carmel finishes regular season with victory

Carmel boys basketball Coach Scott Rosberg though his team may be in trouble after it had lost a 67-66 decision at Joliet Catholic.

With regionals on the horizon, then was not the time to start feeling self-pity.

And the Corsairs did not. Carmel finished the regular season on a high note with a 55-44 home win over St. Viator.

"The kids played with a lot of emotion - too much emotion at the start of the game," Rosberg said.

The contest was senior night at the Mundelein school but the reserves were the players which took center stage.

"The key was the play of the bench," Rosberg said.

Junior Eric Maloney led the reserves with 12 points. Classmates Sean Ryan and Brian Finn also had strong games, Rosberg said.

Carmel finished the ESCC race 5-9 but entered the Warren regional at 14-11 - one win shy of last season's 15 win total.

"I told the kids a couple of weeks ago we needed this win for momentum for the regionals," Rosberg said.

St. Viator led 13-9 after one but a 16-5 run by Carmel in the second quarter.

"We played in spurts," Rosberg said.

Chris Mikrut, who has been scoring in double figures of late, scored 12.

He was named all ESCC for his efforts. Erick Bruksch was named special mention. Randy Bierman and Maloney were named honorable mention.

Mikrut finished the regular-season as Carmel's leading scorer from three-point range.

Waukegan sets run plans for event at Midlane

The third annual Waukegan Midlane Country Club 5K or Walk Race is scheduled for 9 a.m. on Saturday, April 9.

Some 700 plus runners and walkers from throughout Lake County are predicated to participate in this year's event which raises money for Raidogs, Waukegan's Teenage Youth Center. Entry fee is $7 which includes running shorts and a hors d'oeuvre banquet immediately following the race. Start and finish of the 3.1 mile The Athletic Congress certified course is at Midlane Country Club, 14565 W. Yorkhouse Rd. in Waukegan. Applications are available by calling the Waukegan Special Events Office at (312) 360-9000, ext. 513.

"We have decided to hold registration for this year's event which is something we have not done in the past," stated race director Debra Davis. "Because of this, we have set a limit of 700 runners and walkers so each entrant will receive a pair of running shorts".

This year's top prize packages include an overnight stay at the new Illinois Beach Resort in Zion and entry in the Lake County Marathon-10 K or five mile walk-run on April 30. Cash prizes ranging from $35 to $75 will be given in each category.

Daniels names Churchill House Minority Whip

State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa) has been reappointed House Minority Whip, it was announced by Rep. Lee Daniels, the Republican minority leader from Elmhurst.

He said the reappointment of Churchill is based on the job he has done in this position in the past and for the original reasons he was named to this leadership position.

This includes recognition of the extraordinary hard work and long hours he devotes to the people of the state and his district, and because of his ability to understand complex legislation. The appointment is also due to the respect he has earned from his peers from both political parties.

Churchill commented that many people are not aware of the role of the House minority whip. The job includes selecting with other leaders of the party which legislation the Republicans will support, not support or take no position on.

He also calls for him to guide and direct certain legislation and to negotiate issues with members of both political parties.

Churchill said he is honored at the respect being showed to him by his colleagues for putting him into this leadership position.

Drains Run Slow?

You'll never have a slow running, or clogged drain again! The secret? Clean drains don't run slow.

Slow drains, or periodic clogs, are SIGNALS that a thick layer of GOOK is choking your pipes. Grease, hair, and other waste sticks to your pipes, with every use. This gook deposits along the entire length of the pipe. It chokes your pipes gradually, as it gets thicker and thicker.

Conventional drain openers can't fix slow drains. They react chemically on the surface of the gook. To be effective, they must remain in contact with the waste. Even a small tunnel through the gook lets them flow out to the sewer, leaving the gook behind.

In the past, the only way to remove this build-up was to roter your pipes. But that's expensive, and often only a temporary help.

Now, with just a few minutes each month, you can easily clean out your pipes... and KEEP them clean with Plumb Clean. Its totally unique formula clings, and penetrates deep into the gook. That is what allows it to liquify even years of build-up. Plumb Clean will clean the entire length of your pipes. It will make your drains run like new, when used as directed. This penetrating action is so revolutionary, we stand behind Plumb Clean with a money-back guarantee!

Saves Money

A 1 lb. container of Plumb Clean holds up to 41 drain treatments. Even if drain openers could fix slow drains, you would have to buy over 10 quart bottles to get the same number of treatments. Plumb Clean costs about 35¢ per treatment. We don't know of anything that cleans drains for less.

Safe Too

Conventional drain openers are dangerous chemicals. They can injure eyes on contact. They can release deadly vapors, in some situations. Some, may damage your fixtures. Plumb Clean will not burn skin, or eyes. It will not release harmful fumes. When used as directed, it is 100% safe for people, and of course all plumbing.

So, if your drains are giving you a signal, act now. Start cleaning your drains the safe, effective, guaranteed way. Get Plumb Clean today!

Grayslake ponders Southcreek changes

by BECKY JOHNS

The Grayslake Board of Trustees Plats and Subs Committee discussed possible changes of the Southcreek subdivision site at the committee's last meeting.

Phil Wells and John Murrie, developers of the subdivision, gave a list of additions that the park district requested be a part of the subdivision before it can approve the development. Among these are the increment of sidewalks on both sides of the road leading to the park area, paved road, curbs, one foot of black dirt in the park area to bring the land level to prevent flooding, and a walkway over the ditch on the southwest corner of the subdivision, which the developers agreed to as long as the village establishes a right-of-way in that area.

Cost factors for the development were estimated at $123,870 for the land, sidewalk, curbing, and paving costs.

Murrie said, "This area was formerly zoned for light industry. The village requested that it be developed for single-family homes. We hope that the final plat will be ready by the middle of March."

The committee voted to recommend the temporary plat for Southcreek subdivision to the village board.

The Plats and Subs Committee also discussed the possibility of an amendment to the Subdivision Control Ordinance. Trustee Marv Smith stated that the recommendation from the Plan Committee was to increase the land donation standard be raised from seven acres to 12.5 acres per every thousand people.

In other news, the Grayslake Buildings and Grounds Committee has given recommended changes in the building code. Among these were the suggestion of requiring that prospective builders submit three copies of all plans; one of these additional copies would go to the building department for fire inspection purposes.

The committee also suggested that the unlawful continuance penalty provision be made into a per day fine, with the penalty ranging from no less than $25 to no more than $500 per 24 hour period.

The Impact Fee Committee discussed the possibility of having an ordinance providing for the donation of developers for the Grayslake Area Public Library Dis. The basis for this fee would be determined by the number of persons per household times the per capita support for the library district equaling the per capita fee for library services. The committee also discussed a possibility of having impact fees for the Grayslake Fire Dep.; the rates would be similar to those of the library district.

The committee is considering having an impact fee for the school district. After getting formulas scheduled, the committee will meet with the superintendent in the next few weeks.

"There are lots of separate districts in Grayslake. We want to handle them all at the same time," said Trustee Phil Harris. "We want to handle them all at the same time."

The village attorney is still studying the legality of impact fees at this time.

FOOT FACTS

From The FOOT DOCTOR

Dr. Winters

Dr. Griff J. Winters & Assoc.

Specializing in Reconstructive Foot & Ankle Surgery

PLANTAR WARTS

Warts are caused by a virus infection and are often mistaken as corns and calluses. Warts on the bottom of the foot penetrate deep under the skin like a mushroom, because of pressure in standing. Unlike corns and calluses, the center encapsulated area usually has rust-colored spots that are small blood vessels and nerves that supply the wart. For this reason warts are more painful with side to side pinching.

Warts are contagious to susceptible people and are usually found in adolescents.

If the planter wart is small and discovered early, prescribed chemical agents often times are all that are needed. For large or resistant warts, we often time use Laser surgery that gives good results with minimal discomfort. This is done on an out-patient basis and the patient loses no time off his foot.

If you have the above symptoms or any other foot discomfort, you may contact Dr. Winters for a NO COST CONSULTATION to see if there may be an answer to your foot pain

Gurnee village board gives nod to developments

Village of Gurnee employees may soon be a healthier group.

The village board, at its last meeting, heard a report from Gurnee Village Admin. James Hayner. Hayner told the board that the wellness program will cost $5,500 which has been budgeted.

So far, the village has spent only $200 for a non-smoking program after it had approved several areas of the village hall, police department and fire station be ruled non-smoking areas.

Hayner gave the board a proposal for on-site health risk appraisals for the village's 74 employees. Five options presented by Victory Occupational Health Services would be available to employees, including a questionnaire, body fat measurements, blood pressure, fitness profile and health risk analysis. The cost would be divided between employees and the village.

In other business, the board awarded a bid to Layne-Western Company for well No. 2 renovations. The low bid was for $73,763.

Two developments won go-ahead approval from the Gurnee Village Board.

Brookside development, located off Rte. 132 in unincorporated Lake County, won approval. Gurnee was asked because the village limits are within one and one-half mile of the development.

The 160 acre development will include mostly residential with some commercial as well.

There will be 4,500 square foot lots, according to Eve Lee of Eve Lee and Associates.

"Lake County never faced this type of unit before. We had a hard time under the exiting ordinance," Lee said. There will be eight private parking courts in Brookside, Phase II.

Also winning approval was Southridge Farms II, a development off Washington St. at Cemetery Rd. by Westfield Development Corp.

The 55 acres is an extension of the original Southridge Farms, which was annexed into the village in December. Plans for Southridge Farms II have won a favorable recommendation from the Gurnee Plan Commission. Plans call for suburban estates, country estates and estates homes. Prices are expected to range from $125,000 to $200,000.

Developer Roger Gatewood said there are wetlands on the site but they are of low quality.

The subject of the increase in interest rates was part of the discussion.

"People are waiting to see what rates will be like," Gatewood said.

When the Going Gets Tough, the Tough Get Advertising.

Whether business is good or slow, you have to get your share of whatever business is around. Cutting back your advertising puts you at a disadvantage the very moment you need an edge. Increasing your advertising gives you the edge.

In times of uncertainty, consumers are careful and a little reluctant to spend. They want information. One of the main ways they get information about products, services, prices and values is from advertising. Yours or somebody else's.

Here's a hard fact to chew on. Over any given period, a company that advertises below the industry average has sales that are below the industry average.

Advertising is news about products and services. Most consumers look for this kind of news in the pages of their community newspaper. In plush times, retailers often experiment with other media. But when the going gets tough, they concentrate their efforts in the community newspaper because it provides immediate payoff at the cash register.

Chamber approves donation

The Lindenhurst Chamber of Commerce is supporting the park district run teens program financially.

The Chamber's Board of Directors voted to donate $500 to the teen program. The Chamber board received a list of items from teen group organizers. The money will not be targeted to any one item.

"I think it's a valid approach for doing something for the teens," Chamber President Corky Gross said.

THE BOARD DISCUSSED the format for the March 28 election of officers. The luncheon will be held at the Lindenhurst facility of the State Bank of Antioch. The luncheon, $6.50 per person, will be catered by T.S. Boogies.

An election of officers and the presentation of the officer of the year award will highlight the meeting. Gross said that there are more candidates than positions open is a good sign.

Rep. Churchill to sponsor super sanitary legislation

by BILL SCHROEDER

State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa) has agreed to sponsor enabling legislation in the Illinois General Assembly needed to pave the way for creation of a super sanitary district serving northwest Lake County.

The new level of government is being pushed by Round Lake members of the Northwest Lake County Sewer System Advisory Committee, 13 units of local government banded together in the early 1970s to bring modern sanitation to the northwest part of Lake County.

Rudy Magna, Jr., attorney for the Round Lake Sanitary Dist., told committee members at a meeting at the Black Bear Restaurant, Ingleside, that a draft of the proposed bill has been forwarded to the Legislative Reference Bureau in Springfield "for review as to technical compliance."

Magna said the proposed legislation, prepared by a special subcommittee of the advisory body, constitutes an alternative solution to need for expanding the Fox Lake sewage treatment works serving the four-township area.

Churchill's sponsorship was announced by Charles Johnston, subcommittee chairman and voting representative of the Round Lake Sanitary Dist.

Martin Galantha, director of the Lake

County Public Works Dept. and county representative on the advisory committee, expressed surprise that the bill proposal already was in Springfield with a sponsor before members of the advisory committee had an opportunity to study the proposed legislation.

"I think you should at least have gotten interim approval from the whole committee before proceeding," Galantha told Magna.

"We talk about rates all the time. When Fox Lake requested 50 cents more for improvements, they were turned down. Now we're talking about $7 more per month per user to provide for expansion."—Rudy Parker, County Public Works Dept.

Along with the fast moving legislative proposal, Round Lake members presented Steve Amundsen, financial advisor to the Round Lake Sanitary Dist., who offered a complicated presentation on the merits of adopting a nine-million-gallon-per-day capacity program (mpg) for modernizing the Fox Lake plant, which is recognized as operating with failed technology, against a 6.82-million-mpg program being studied by Fox Lake officials.

Amundsen offered figures showing that the bigger capacity would cost $26.5 million by the year 2009, as compared to a little over $10 million if completed now. He said cost of the larger plant could be done at a lower monthly charge to individual homeowners because of efficiencies.

County Board Chairman Norman Geary called the figures "unreasonable" in light of the fact that only 300 hookups per year have been added in recent years which adds up to sufficient capacity for 20 years if the talk about rates all the time. When Fox Lake requested 50 cents more for improvements, they were turned down. Now we're talking about $7 more per month per user to provide for expansion."

Nerves were getting frayed during the long meeting. Geary and Johnston traded charges. Geary took Johnston to task for accusing the county in a newspaper article of holding a surplus that should be returned to users. "That charge is untrue, Charlie," Geary declared. Johnston said his opinion was based on county cash flow reports.

As this juncture, Mayor Carl Schrimpf of Round Lake Beach made a motion to recommend approval of a 9-mpg program, which was seconded by Al Valentine, Round Lake Sanitary Dist. treasurer. The motion carried 6 to 1, with the Lakes Region Sanitary Dist. passing. Earlier in the week, the Lake Region trustees adopted a resolution to oppose the super district.

Walter Uhwat, Lakes Region chairman, voiced skepticism about figures offered by the Round Lake consultant. William Axelsen, Lakes Region trustee, explained that the pass vote for his district reflects Lake Region's concern about the pivotal nature of Lake Villa's participation.

Bayne replied that "Fox Lake is tired of everyone telling us what to do. State officials will decide for Lake Villa. We're trying to force the issue with the 9-mpg program."

A motion by Valentine to have $149,718 in northwest funds held by the county turned over to Fox Lake for engineering services resulted in a 4-4 tie that was defeated in a tie-breaking vote by Suzie Schmidt, County Board Dist. 4 representative, who chaired the meeting in her capacity as vice chairman of the County Board Public Service Committee.
